A 'Rube Goldberg' Device

. . . A Center of Controversy

Poverty Fund Buys A Muscle Builder

By FRANK LaPIERRE

Resembling a Rube Goldberg device, a "metal contraption" used to devlop muscles in youth has become the center of controversy in South San Francisco.

The controversy--or "misunderstanding"—as South San Francisco Unified School District's Dr. Clifton Boyack calls it—stems from the origin of funds used to purchase the $2,500 machine.

A recent newspaper article disclosed the apparatus was purchased with "poverty funds" and used exclusively by that city's high school football team.

An irate citizen condemned the purchase, saying "one look at those brawny boys and you can see they don't need any muscle-building machine."

Both statements are off-base and cannot be related to this particular case, according to Dr. Boyack.

"While it is true the equipment was purchased under Title One (poverty) funds authorized by the federal government, it is simply not true only the football team has access to it."

Title One funds differ from Title Two funds insofar as they can be used to assist youth in "poverty" areas by making such items as sports equipment, and in some cases, camping trips, available to them.

For instance, a five-day trip last August to Camp Leonard by some 48 schoolchildren of the second, third, fourth and fifth grades was paid for under the Title One program.

Total cost of the project was some $5,000.

A project known as the "Anti-poverty Portion of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act" was approved last month in the amount of $66,364 for similar projects.

This project will affect five schools in the district—Martin Spruce, Los Cerritos, Parkway and South San Francisco.

Other projects under the Title One program include establishment of full-time remedial reading programs in the three elementary schools and secondary

The apparatus has become the center of a small controversy after it was revealed "anti-poverty funds" were used to purchase it. Officials have defended the $2,500 purchase and blame the dispute on a "misunderstanding regarding use of Title One funds."

Measure Of Peace, Quiet At Mori Pt.

A measure of peace and quiet has returned to the Mori Point area of Pacifica after a week of near riots, traffic jams and assorted piratical incidents centered around the unfortunate ship U.S.S. Johnson.

Two San Francisco men who boarded the World War II vintage destroyer escort in hopes of obtaining a share of the salvage rights apparently "gave up the ship" when they abdicated Friday, and Pacifica police said there are hopeful signs that the city's teen-agers are also giving up their interest which seems to center more around scuttling than salvaging.

Three special guards have replaced the two "squatters" aboard.

Employees of the Ocean Shore Patrol Company in San Francisco. said they have orders to repel anv persons attempting to board the vessel.

Shortly after the U.S.S. Johnson broke her tow lines and beached Wednesday night, Paul E. Farley, 39, an airlines pilot, climbed aboard with his brother-in-law, Larry Rody, and claimed the ship as salvage.

According to the San Franciscans, a maritime attorney had advised them they had a legal right to certain salvage rights concerning the huge gray warship.

But the San Diego firm that purchased the Johnson for scrap thought otherwise, and calmly went about their business of "weighing" the prospects of getting it off its sandy berth.

Representatives of at least three salvage companies have visited the area in an attempt to arrive at a cost for re-floating the craft which hourly buries itself deeper in the soft pepper-colored sand of Mori Point.

Estimates have so far run as high as $80,000 to drag the Johnson back out to sea.

The owners bought the ship for some $50,000.

One of the veteran salvage men at the scene said the ship would have to be internally braced and the area around the ship dredged.

Another reason the best time to attempt the "drag" would be next month when another 6-foot tide comes in.

"She beached in 20-knot winds on a six-foot tide, and she'll have to get off on a six-foot tide," the salty-looking seaman said.

And if the old warrior resists efforts to haul her back to sea?

A 'Special Study of Board Personnel, and Difficulties'

Closed Session By Probe Panel

A special study of personnel, board, and administrative difficulties in the Jefferson Elementary School District will be launched November 1, Ben Mansell, assistant personnel standards executive of the California Teachers' Association (CTA) announced yesterday.

Responsibility for the study requested by teachers in the Jefferson district and supported by the principals in the district has been accepted by the Bay Section CTA Personnel Standards and Ethics Commission, Mansell said.

The California Association of School Administrators (CASA) and the California Elementary School Administrators Association (CESAA) have been asked to name representatives to the study panel.

A school board member and a classroom teacher representative will also participate on the panel.

The panel will meet for four days in closed sessions to hear testimony by teachers, administrators, the public and school board members. Information presened will be considered confidential.

This procedure is followed, Mansell said, because the hearings are extra-legal, hence testimony is not privileged, and because the panel's function more closely resembles that of a grand jury rather than a court of law.

"The hearing panel is interested in obtaining first hand factual information from individuals relating to problems being studied in the district," he said.

Anyone wishing an appointment to appear before the panel may call Mary Wilhelm at 697-1400 or write Mansell at CTA State Headquarters, 1705 Murchison Drive, Burlingame, before October 26 or at the Holiday Inn, 245 South Airport Boulevard, South San Francisco, between 4 p.m., October 31, and the evening of November 2. Holiday Inn, phone 589-7200.

The hearings will be held November 1-4 at the Holiday Inn.

When all testimony has been heard, Mansell said, panel members will integrate their findings, conclusions and recommendations into a single report.

After the report is adopted, the commission recommends what distribution it should receive.

"This entire program of personnel standards and ethics," he concluded, "stems from the educational profession's willingness to assume responsibility for the condcct of its members and its desire to insure an effective educational program through qualified personnel working in a climate conducive to good teaching."

Committee Seeks Depot For Pacifica

A Pacifica Chamber of Commerce committee has scheduled a meeting with representatives of the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Greyhound Bus Company in an attempt to establish a freight depot in the city, Manager Bernard Lake said.

The chamber committee, headed by Stanley Farber, is investigating means of lowering freight rates in Pacifica.

Lake said the purpose of the proposed "drop station" depot would be served as a point of pick up or delivery for small parcels shipped or received via Greyhound Bus.

"If this drop station can be worked out, a major step will have been taken in solving the freight problems here," he said.

S.S.F. Girl, 6, Killed By Car

A six-year-old South San Francisco school girl was killed Monday afternoon when she was hit by a passing car shortly after stepping off a school bus on Junipero Serra Blvd.

Linda Diane Reid, of 842 Newman Drive, was struck and killed by a car driven by Carol Ann Martin, 33, of San Carlos.

Witnesses said Linda stepped off the chartered school bus with a group of other children shortly before 3 p.m. on the corner of Junipero Serra Boulevard and Clay Drive.

Three other children have been killed at the same intersection in recent years, according to police.

As Linda stepped from the stopped bus, she ran around the front of the vehicle into the traffic lanes and directly in front of the Martin car, according to witnesses.

The intersectional signal was green for traffic, police said.

Linda attended the first grade at Mater Dolorosa School in South San Francisco.

Search for A 'Fishnapper'

Daly City police were continuing their search for a fishnapper.

William Cileo told police yesterday someone stole 15 goldfish from his backyard pond at 26 Santa Ana Drive.

Bomb Threat Case Solved

Pacifica Police solved the mystery of a rash of bomb threats which plagued the city with the arrests of two juvenile girls last week.

The girls, 12 and 13, made full confessions after they wree arrested on a tip from a juvenile informant, officers said.

Calling from the Linda Mar home of one of their parents. The girls made three "prank" bomb threats in two days.

One, the Sanchez Elementary School was evacuated during the noon hour when one of the girls told a part-time office employe there yas a bomb in the building "set to blow in about 10 minutes."

Free Visual Tests Slated In Daly City

Children and adults who wish to have their eyes tested may take a free visual test at the eye-mobile unit for eye conservation, October 22 from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., at the Skyline Plaza parking lot in Daly City.

Gordon Cartwright, eye committee chairman Daly City-Colma Lions Club, said the visual performance testing will be under the supervision of Rita Figueroa, 964 Southgate Avenue, Daly City.

After making a performance test, Mrs. Figueroa will be able to determine whether a person should obtain further professional examination and advice from an eye doctor.

Tests take from 12 to 16 minutes.

Eyes are tested separately and together for distance and close vision. Children taking tests must be accompanied by an adult.

The eye-mobile for eye conservation is the property of the San Francisco Lions Club.

Its purchase, upkeep, and technician's salary is made possible by public contributions to the Lions Club annual White Cane Week, Cartwright said.

$250 'Kitty' In Post Grid Pick

Mrs. Nickie Hoffert, 964 Newman Drive, South San Francisco, won the Post's Football Contest first prize of two tickets to the California-Stanford big game by naming 13 of 15 winners correctly and giving the nearest estimate of the net yards made by the 49ers in their game aaginst Atlanta last Sunday.

The other contestants who picked 13 winners were Carol Carpenter and Mark Vidak of Daly City, and R. Halvorsen of Pacifica.

Since there was not a cash winner, this week's prize is $250, plus $50 bonus for being a home delivered subscriber to The Times. Thursday night is the deadline.

Mrs. Hoffert, the mother of four children, has lived in South San Francisco for seven years. She admits to having help from the family in filling out her winning entry.

Candy Sales Ring Broken

With the apprehension of four Richmond boys by Daly City Police Saturday, a candy peddling ring was cracked wide open before it had time to flourish.

Officers James Van Pelt reported the youths — age 10 through 14 years — were "brought to the station" after their apprehension and were charged with selling candy without a license.

Pacifica Turns Down New Shopping Complex

Pacifica councilmen voted 3-2 against changing the zoning of a lot at the intersection of Adobe rive and Linda Mar Boulevard after an hour-and-a-half debate Thursday night.

A heated controversy preceded council action on the zoning request, which was entered by James J. Telegan on behalf of Victor Magrin. The city's zoning commission had earlier approved reclassification of the lot, from R-3-G (garden apartment) to C-1 (neighborhood commercial).

Magrin has stated intentions of building a "neighborhood shopping complex" at the site.

Two residents of the area spoke in favor of the zoning change, and about 14 against it. Those in favor said they felt the proposed commercial development would "be an advantage to the community." Chamber of Commerce Manager Bernard Lake also spoke in favor of granting the change.

One of the opposing residents, Patrick Haggarty, leveled conflict of interest charges at Councilman Nick Gust, who favored approving the change.

"Nick Gust's nephew told me this week he has the barber shop unit of the proposed complex 'all sewn up' and is just waiting for the council to approve the zoning change," Haggarty said.

Gust said he knew nothing of his nephew's plans, and that he and his sisters and their children, who live two blocks from his residence," "are farther apart in our business and interests than most people who live miles apart."

Other neighborhood residents cited the likelihood of a significant increase of traffic in the area, where roads are hilly and crooked, and "the general nuisance of spot zoning" in their opposition to the proposition.

It was also noted that the intersection is a "focal point" for high school and elementary students on their way to school.

Magrin owns a service station on a lot across the street from the site, and Councilman Fox said he "promised the city a medical and dental center would be built when we granted that zoning change, but instead he sought a use permit and built the gasoline station."

Mayor Harland Minshew joined Gust in voting in favor of the zoning change, with Councilmen Fox, Wallis and McCarty opposing.

Another zoning change, requested by G. W. Lincoln for a site adjacent to Nauman-Lincoln Mortuary on Oceana Boulevard, was granted by the council. The change was from "O" (office) to C-1 (neighborhood commercial).

In other action Thursday night, the council voted to make Jan. 1, 1967, the effective date for instituting the city's proposed "bedroom tax," sent the city engineer's recommendation for the abandonment of Beau Rivage to the planning commission for its consideration, and accepted the bid of Rick's Company on an air compressor.

Councilmen authorized members of the Park, Beach and Recreation Commission to attend the California League of Cities convention, and approved the city engineer's request to purchase a vacuum type street cleaning machine.

Mayor Harland Minshew proclaimed October 24 "United Nations Day" in Pacifica; October 29 was proclaimed "Republican Day," and October 23 "United States Day," the latter at the request of the local American Legion Post.

There was some talk, but no official action, on proclaiming Saturday "U.S.S. Johnson Day" in honor of the destroyer escort that washed ashore at Pacifica Wednesday night and brought a minor windfall to the city's commercial interests.

POLITICAL PARADE

Frank Pacelli, president of the Daly City Democratic Club, has been named chairman of the 1966 "Dollars for Democrats," drive now opening in Daly City-Colma area as part of the "grass roots" fund-raising program sponsored annually by the Democratic party of San Mateo County. Mayor Al Polonsky is honorary chairman of the local drive.

Local chairmen for the eleventh consecutive Dollars' drive were named earlier this week for the entire county by Herbert Fischgrund, Menlo Park, San Mateo County "Dollars for Democrats" chairman.

Pacelli reports that the Daly City Democratic Club will retain 15 per cent of its total collections this year, and that half of the funds collected in the county will remain here.

James Grealish and Frank Monte are co-sponsoring a dinner in honor of Robert N. Miller, candidate for the Twenty-seventh Assembly District, on October 25.

"We both know Bob and feel that once you have had the opportunity to meet and talk to him, you will feel as we do — that he is the man who will bring government back to the people of our district with competent leadership," they said.

Space at Val's is limited and the tickets are on a first-come first-served basis.

The Republican precinct organization of Daly City and Colma will sponsor an open house October 15 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Republican headquarters in the Civic Center Plaza, 15 Eighty-seventh Street, wuite 4 in Daly City.

Assembly Candidate Robert Miller will appear at noon and Sen. Richard J. Dolwig is expected to attend later in the afternoon.

Vandalism Crackdown

A crackdown on vandalism in Pacifica schools is now underway, Laguna Salada trustees were told last night. School officials and police are co-operating in a joint attack on the problem.

The new, hard-line approach to curb costly vandalism in the Laguna Salada School District properties was described last Tuesday night at a trustees' meeting.

Backed by adoption of a resolution that forbids loitering by minors by the district board, school custodians supported by local police will take a firm stand against youthful lawlessness that last summer cost the district $3,858.

Dist. Supt. Frederick E. Luca said he had explained to Mayor Harland Minshew of Pacifica that "the resolution is worded in such a way as not to hinder community progress by youth-serving organizations and those conducted by the Department of Parks, Beaches and Recreation."

The "teeth" in the resolution are the words, "No minor person under 18 years shall loiter upon or about any school building or grounds . . . between the hours of one-half hour after sunset and sunrise the following morning, when not accompanied by a responsible adult . . . or is attending a school-sponsored function."

School district employees are to curtail the presence of minors on district property, and to call police if any minor refuses to leave when asked.

A joint meeting of district officials and Police Chief Neil Tremaine was held recently to discuss the vandalism problems.

N. County Education Class Lauded

Enthusiastic reception in northern San Mateo County of community education programs sponsored by College of San Mateo was reported to the board of trustees last Wednesday night.

"We feel we have made a significant breakthrough in this area," said Dr. William H. Miller, CSM co-ordinator of community education. "So far this school year we have undertaken four separate series in San Bruno and Pacifica, and all have done extremely well."

A summer short course on natural history of local beaches attracted a Pacifica enrollment of 106, Dr. Miller told the board, and a more recent lecture series there drew 156.

In San Bruno, he said, lectures on the changing character of the American family were attended by 469 persons, while a follow-up series on the individual's role in the family has played to a total of nearly 600 in its first two meetings.

When the college launched its community education offerings on a full-scale basis in 1964, most events were held on the campus. Since then there has been an increasing trend toward moving the programs out into the various communities of the district, to make them available to a wider range of audiences.

Dr. Miller also informed the trustees, at their regular meeting at College of San Mateo, that he is thinking of two unusual programs for next spring.

Daly City School Gains U.S. Grant

The George Washington Elementary School Daly City has been selected to receive a federal grant to develop a pilot school library program, Superintendent of Schools Frank Greenwood announced today.

The project will develop a full-scale elementary school library, adding over 3,500 books, 1,700 paperbacks, 1,000 educational filmstrips, 400 art reproductions and 175 phonograph recordings to the school's library, Greenwood said.

The materials will be provided by a $16,000 grant under the Federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act. The Jefferson Elementary School District has added a full-time credentialled librarian to the faculty, doubled the book shelving in the library, and placed filmstrip projectors and screens in every classroom in the school.

JESD Director of Instructional Materials, Robert E. Muller, said the project will be a pilot program for future development of the district's 16 elementary school libraries.

"School libraries are more than books," Muller said. "They must provide children with many different types of learning and enrichment materials. Books are a prime source of information and inspiration, but filmstrips, recordings and art prints add a new dimension to the learning process and to a child's achievement in school."

"A unique part of the library project," Muller added, "will be that the children will have complete access to all of these new materials, and may check out filmstrips, art prints, recording and projectors, as well as books, for home study."

Dr. Bernard Gerdes, principal of the school said that he and his teachers expect the new library facilities to heighten student interest and motivation, and add significantly to classroom learning experiences.

The project library will be formally opened at 8 p.m., on November 2, with an open house arranged by the George Washington P-TA. Mrs. Helen Sebby, will speak on the role of the library in modern elementary school education. The public is invited to attend.

Church Plans S.M. Picnic

Bethel Church of Pacifica will hold its annual Sunday School picnic October 22 at the San Mateo Memorial Park. It will be an all day outing starting at 9 a.m.

There will be games for the different age groups. The main event will be the annual competition between the teens and adults on the baseball diamond and volleyball court.

Serramonte High Work Begins With Groundbreaking Sunday

Work began on the 53-acre Serramonte High School site in Daly City Sunday morning when Lyal Ingersoll, chairman of the Jefferson Union High School board of trustees, turned the first shovelful of earth.

Completion of the grading and street work is expected by mid-1967, according to host Carl Gellert, president of the Suburban Realty Company, developer of the 1000-acre Serramonte subdivision.

While no dedicatory talks were made at the brief event, Trustee Ingersoll later said, "We have every hope that the scholarship at this well-planned new high school will set high standards."

Also present were the other district trustees; Superintendent Edward D. Morgan; Louis J. Martin, who will be principal at Serramonte; other educators; Buzz Haskins, grading contractor; reporters and cameramen.

The school site is east of Skyline Boulevard at Hickey. It will be bounded on the east by Callan Drive, north by Serramonte Boulevard, and west by St. Francis Boulevard. The Chinese Cemetery is a tranquil neighbor. The area was once part of the Christen dairy.

At the end of the observance, Fred Callen Jr., nephew of the company president, took the party to breakfast at Lyon's restaurant.

Annexation Of School 'Way Off'

The proposed annexation of the John F. Kennedy School to Daly City is still a long way off, Jefferson Elementary School District Trustees were told Monday night by Superintendent Frank L. Greenwood.

Two landowners adjacent to the school site were "not too hot for increased taxes that would result from this annexation," Greenwood said.

More than 500 acres are being considered for annexation to the city from the Guadalupe Canyon Parkway area over to the Brisbane City limits.

An organization known as Lafco (local area formation commission) is opposed to "strip" and "island" annexation, whereby small parcels of non-adjoining lands are annexed.

The school's fire alarm system still has not been connected to the main system in Daly City.

A school official explained the system would be hooked up when the equipment arrives from New Jersy.

"There has been a slight delay in shipment of the equipment from the manufacturer, otherwise it would have been connected already to the city's system," Roger Barthuli, assistant administrator, said.

During a recent brush fire that swept down Guadalupe Canyon and stopped within 200 feet of the school ground, a jurisdictional dispute arose between city and county fire departments over who was going to battle the blaze.

Both finally responded.

School Principal David Hansen, when it was evident the alarm system was not functioning, ordered the school's 450 children to be evacuated, using the classroom address system.

Irate parents demanded the school authorities explain why the children were allowed to attend a "half finished" school.

Monday night a parent asked the board why the administration "didn't know this site was not a part of Daly City ... and if they did know, why wasn't action taken sooner to have it annexed?"

Superintendent Greenwood said the district assumed the city would provide the necessary protection and "we proceeded on this assumption until recently."

Barthuli said a recent agreement between the district, county, and Daly City was sufficient to provide satisfactory police and fire protection "until such times as the annexation can be completed."

Certain precautionary measures now are being taken to safeguard children at the enroute to the school, Greenwood said.

Muscle-Building Machine Bought By Poverty Fund schools; addition of teacher aides; continuance of an outdoor education program and field trips for students.

With the approval of the State Department (keepers of the poverty funds) to spend the $66,364, the district will start a program to teach English as a secondary language to children whose primary language is other than English.

"The funds can be used to better education for youth in these areas, including physical education," Dr. Boyack said. "This apparatus (the exercise rig) is not for the exclusive use of the football team. It can be, and is, used by other district schools under a supervised program of physical education."

Marv Ashby, South San Francisco High's physical education instructor, likewise defends the purchase of the rig.

"This isn't only to build muscles! It's to keep children in shape under a recognized, planned program of supervised exercises," Ashby explained. "There is little doubt the children who use this machine under our present program could not possibly have bought it for their exclusive use."

Ashby plans to expand the program and gradually include more youth in the PE classes he now instructs.

"There is nothing new about this apparatus," Dr. Boyack said. "I know of several others in the county. How they were purchased I can't say. But if funds are available from the fedral government for this program, I can see nothing wrong in using them."

Dr. Boyack said the PE program within the South San Francisco School District is meeting with "great success."

"It's unfortunate this misunderstanding regarding the so-called anti-poverty funds has arisen," Dr. Boyack said.

By LE PACINI

DOUG FESSENDEN, the venerable San Francisco State director of physical education and recreation whom many of the younger students thought came with the building, officially retired a couple of weeks ago after 13 years at the helm.

Although 13 years doesn't seem too long to the older generation, it is when one considers that Fessenden broke in at virtually the inception of physical education on the then new Lake Merced campus, and inherited all the problems which go along with the tremendous surge of growing pains which State was to endure for the next decade and more.

But the ruggedly handsome 65-year-old ex-football coach won't really be gone. He's staying on as a professor of physical education.

The most succinct memory we have of Fessenden was when we were covering sports for the school newspaper and observed Fessenden's doodlings at long meetings. He drew X's and O's, football plays, some from the old coaching days and some new ones made up on the spot. The late Joe Verducci, then football coach and athletic director, always threatened to dig through Fessenden's wastepaper basket to rescue some of the plays . . . especially when Joe had had a bad week on the field.

But enough of the reminiscing and on to the new. Fessenden's replacement is 40-year-old Richard B. Westkaemper, a tough San Antonio native who was a two-way end at Southwestern University and the University of Texas.

Westkaemper was one of those naval trainees who, during the war years, got bounced around to so many educational institutions, so he also attended Rice Institute and did graduate work at Columbia.

When at Southwestern University he participated in the Sun Bowl against the University of Mexico in 1944 and in the Cotton Bowl against Missouri the following year. He also played basketball at Southwestern.

When he got to Texas, he not only starred on the swimming team, but had the opportunity to play football with the great Bobby Layne, and against such coming greats as Crazylegs Hirsch, Alvin Dark and Doak Walker.

On completing his grad work in education and physical education at Columbia, his first administrative position was as director of the health service at Kansas State Teachers College. From there, he went to Trinity University in San Antonio as chairman of health, physical education, and recreation.

After two years at Trinity, he moved to Wisconsin State University and served in both instructional and administrative capacities.

His halcyon days gone, he now contents himself with bird and duck hunting, fishing, competing in national sailing regattas, and snow sailing.

IF YOU WANT to see two big, fast linemen perform you don't have to go any further than the Lowell High football field (where State is playing until completion of renovations of their facilities).

Guard Elmer Collett, a Little All Coast last year, is even better this time around. The 225-pounder, who has already been red-shirted by the 49ers, is still growing and runs faster than any Gator lineman, both in initial start and over-all speed. This is an accomplishment when you realize that the Gators usually don't get the big guys so must rely on line speed.

The other beauty is Lyle Baucom, 6-6, 260 pounds, but with a history of not always feeling like playing. Insiders say that should Lyle ever lose some of his good nature and get vicious, he'll be one of the best anywhere. He's a middle guard and-or defensive tackle.

TWO WEEKS AGO some friends bullied us into predicting the exact score of the 49er-Packer game, and we put it in writing, 49ers 24, Green Bay 23. Only one field goal apiece off. And we didn't bet a penny on it! Which proves we really didn't mean it.

And which also proved that it's much safer—as long as you don't bet—to publicly pick a 10-1 underdog than a 2-1 favorite If the underdog wins, you're a great prophet. If it loses, it's done only what was expected. But you pick a favorite and IT loses, you're a bum.

Imagine how the bookies must have felt that weekend. Not only did Green Bay go, but Chicago upset Baltimore, San Jose State beat Cal, Stanford blew to Oregon, and a few others which escape us at the moment.

★ ★ ★

ISN'T IT a coincidence that both Cal and Stanford coaches have had the misfortune to come up with good enough soph quarterbacks to move their fine running senior QB's to halfback slots, and that in each case it's hindered rather than helped the team. Sometimes, we guess, is ISN'T good to have too much talent.

★ ★ ★

A PREP COACH WHO realizes that in high school sports success is more often based on the other team's mistake than on his team's glories is going to do a lot of winning.

★ ★ ★

SO YOU THINK you've got problems, Bunky. Consider the plight of Terra Nova track and cross-country coach Dennis Lanterman, whose cross-country squad of a few years back brought the Tigers their only NPL sports championship and who figured he had a real chance this year—until he lost his top four—count 'em—runners.

His greatest, Steve Wilson, decided to concentrate on his chosen field of journalism this year, Charley Porter, and Ed Dillsaver decided they needed more time to study, and Ralph Lyons moved to the middlewest.

(A late flash! Dillsaver just rejoined the squad.)

★ ★ ★

HAVE YOU noticed Bob Fouts' latest favorites: "And they're running a collision course!"

★ ★ ★

WHEN IS THE right time for a winning coach to retire? At the height of his glories, with the itch to see how far he could have gone still there, or after he loses, when the old competitive urge to prove himself again is still with him?

★ ★ ★

PET REFORM: When a pass receiver catches a ball behind the line of scrimmage, he should get credit for the subsequent yardage on his running stats, not the passer on his yards gained passing stats.

★ ★ ★

BILL RUSSELL recently came up with as sound a winning formula as you'll ever hear. The new Celtic coach said simply that Boston tries to sign only kids who have been used to winning in high school and college, kids, in other words, who have a winning attitude, who don't know what it's like to lose and don't want to find out.

Fired-Up Cap Rolls Over Hillsdale Hi

By JOHN HORGAN
Post Sports Writer

Through a bit of inverted patriotism, the rabid fans of the Mustangs of Capuchino High School have proclaimed their Mid-Peninsual League school to be overcome by the "Spirit of '67."

The 'Tangs mighty Green Grid Machine responded handily to the pleas of its ardent supporters yesterday afternoon as they crushed outmanned Hillsdale, 33-6, in a key MPL struggle which saw the San Bruno school take over undisputed possession of first place with a 3-0-0 record.

Cap coach Gordy Young heaped praise on a trio of his players whom he felt contributed most to the club's easy victory. "I thought Mike Mathis, Mike Wynne and Mark Andrews were outstanding for us today," explained Young. "Mathis in particular had a good day."

But there were other Cap heroes who also had a hand in the rout of a Knight eleven which may have played one of its best games of the year in the "hit" department. Quarterback Mike Consatnzo, who threw for a pair of touchdowns and 183 yards on 13 of 22 attempts, back Ron Valdez and End Greg Hargis also lent a hand yesterday.

Surprisingly, the home club took the lead in the first quarter on Bill Hutchinson's recovery of a blocked Cap punt in the end zone. Tom McRee threw himself in front of Cap kicker Jerry Neary and Hutchison fell on it for the sole Knight points of the day.

Cap came right back to tally 13 points in a little over two minutes to ice the tilt in the first stanza.

Cap marched (or, rather, flew) from its own 37 to its first score on three passes: to Neary for 12, to back Jimmy Kauffman for 23, and the final scoring heave to Mathis for 28.

After a Hillsdale series failed to produce, Knight punter Jack Bonarmarte's kick was blocked on the Knight 26 by Wynne and Hargis recovered it in the end zone for another touchdown. Costanzo ran over the extra point and Cap was on its way to its third straight league win after an opening game practice loss to South San Francisco.

The Mustangs added six-pointers in each of the final three frames in the following manner: Dennis Diestler caught an 11-yard pass from Costanzo; Kauffman hustled around left end from 17 yards out, and Costanzo ran another over from the ten.

Hillsdale got good performances from its quarterback, little Pete Jensen, who passed for 176 yards on 13 of 26 attempts (but he had three costly interceptions), end Steve Taylor who snared four of Jensen's tosses for 75 yards, and burly halfback Lou Scott who went both ways and disported himself well in the face of the overwhelming Cap strenght and speed.

Oddly, although Cap left the field at halftime with a sure 19-6 lead, the Mustanges were able to garner only three first downs in the entire half compared to eight for the Knights. Key to the contest proved to be Cap's ability to punt the Hillsdale crew into poor field position for much of the day and keep them there. The Cap offense, adept at scoring with quick strikes, did just that once they got within the Hillsdale 30.

At the halftime, Cap's senior class paraded about the field with a young lad in a gold Nazi helmet who was hoisted on a green pallet. Even long-time Cap fan Carl Reina had to applaud that novelty as the "Spirit of '67" seems to be reminiscent of past years in San Bruno, years of memorable powerhouses and outstanding grid nits.

D.C. Slow Pitch League Planned

The Daly City Recreation Department will conduct a manager's meeting Thursday, October 20, at 7:30 p.m. in the Upstairs Room of the War Memorial Community Center for slow pitch softball managers interested in entering teams in a Sunday adult slow pitch softball league.

Purpose of the meeting will be to set up regulations and rules for the league. For further information contact Mickey Corso, Recreation Supervisor.

MISS PAULA WORTHY, left, a recreation major in her senior year at San Jose State College, is serving an "internship" of 12 weeks with the Daly City Recreation Department. Miss Worthy, who has had part-time experience with the Alameda and Santa Clara recreation departments, will work a regular 40-hour week in Daly City and receive 10 hours college credit for the training. Here the volunteer worker goes over registration procedure for a new resin craft class with recreation supervisor Pat Lessard. (Post Photo)

Sea Bowl Notes

Scores seem to be going up lately with more and more bowlers shooting better games. Talk this week at Sea Bowl is the game that Don Ellefson rolled in the Kings and Queens League. Rolling ten strikes in a row, he only managed to knock down nine pins on his eleventh ball and sparing for a 289 game. This by the way, is the high game in sanction play for Sea Bowl since it opened for business. He should have no trouble with the high game award in his league. For the ladies it was Dolly Urnezis rolling 254 for her third game, for a 576 series. More info on Dolly next week as this was last minute news.

Tournaments: This year's SFWBA annual tournament for team will be held at L. L. Castle Lanes and for the doubles and singles at our Sea Bowl. Entries must be in before October 28 to bowl in this tournament. Entry fee is $4.50 per event per bowler. Forms may be obtained at the desk. All women bowlers should enter for this is a handicap tournament and all have a chance to win.

Pacifica Youth League bowling tournament will start October 29 until December 18. First prize is a television and second is a stereo that are guaranteed. Prizes will be on 1 to 10 ratio. Optional feature for a $1 entry to win a prize of your favorite beverage by getting a strike in the third, sixth, and ninth frame of any one game. This is a very good cause, so I urge everyone to bowl in this tournament at least once. Besides it is tax deductible

Friday had the first squad of bowlers for the no-tap blue chip bowling where you only have to knock down nine pins including the head to get a strike. High for the women was Sis Peterson who rolled a 200 high game and Joan McGuiness rolled 720 series. For the men: The Goose 236 for 889 series. Remember you can only bowl this on Fridays, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Bowlers needed for the Reno Fun League. This is one for people that don't like to lose any games, everyone who bowls wins the same prize, the prize being a trip to Reno and back with somespending money to boot. Trophies for the first place team. Women and men beginners and advanced bowlers are welcome.

EBB TIDE: Lois Talbot 186—533. Sea Bowl Rose, 199—522.

MERMAIDS: Bowling for Regal Upholstery Sheila had H.G. 203 for 410 and anchor Sheryl Wetenkomp 192 for 516. Connie Bradley had a 497 for Pacifica Cable Co. 850 SCRATCH: John Concilio had 233—624 bowling for American Trophy. Chuck York 224—614 for Team 3. Lee Harris 229—610. Don Meadows 226—609. Don Bryant 220—599 bowling for Knuz Paving. Mike Blagrove 229. Grants by the way finally lost a game after a 9-0 start.

BOMBERS SINGLES: My apologies to your league for saying that you were not a league. This week's high series, Mel Houser 492, also high game, 182.

KEGLERETTES: Nina Walsh rolled a 200 in a make-up match for 484. Betty Thomas had series 214—537, Iris Ceiffe 205, and Joanne Funk 479. Low score was 282 for tie series.

STARSHOOTERS: Not sharpshooters. Frank Skillon 223—632 bowling for Merrits Chevron. Lew Lovelady rolled 222—for 571.

K. and O: Don Ellefson rolled high for all bowlers at Sea Bowl with 289—and a 603 series. Frank Mendibles 224—563. Carol Dahl 193—539 for the ladies.

South San Francisco Blanks Terra Nova Hi

40-0 Win Pleases DeJong

By TONY BEST
Post Correspondent

Coach Ray DeJong of South San Francisco High School commented last week that he was satisfied with his team's performance against Terra Nova High School, which is hardly the most surprising sports development of the day.

There aren't too many coaches around that would not be satisfied with a 40-0 victory nor a performance like the one turned in by Halfback Russ Cottrell.

Cotrell rushed for 147 yards in 16 carries and scored three times on runs of three, 39, and 51 yards and was the main thorn in Terra Nova's side.

Terra Nova also had its offensive mistakes which hurt. The Tigers fumbled on five occasions, and lost the ball there times, twice to guard Mike Lopez. The Tigers also threw three interceptions, two of them deep in Warrior territory.

South San Francisco scored the first time it got its hands on the ball as the Warriors went 57 yards in five plays with the pay-off coming when Vince Olsen fired a 37-yard touchdown pass to Dan Bottini.

The Warriors were on the scoreboard again minutes later when Bruce Navarret recovered a fumble on the Terra Nova 26. Seven plays later Mario Bernardini scored from the one.

One of the major turning points of the game came moments later when Cottrell faked a punt and scored from 39 yards out at the end of the first period.

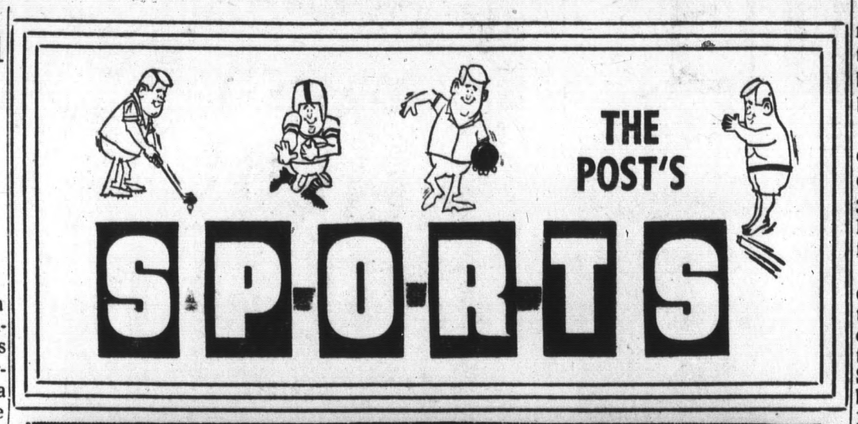
South San Francisco scored with 27 seconds remaining in the half when it climaxed a short 55-yard drive with Cottrell scoring from the three. Main plays on the drive were two passes of 16 yards each from Olson to Alex Smith.

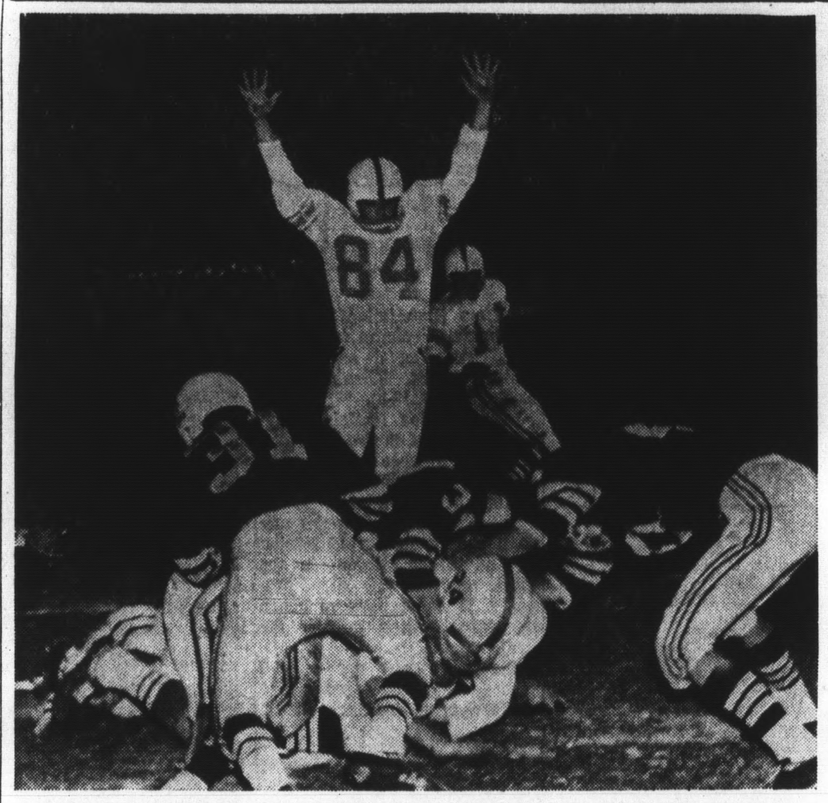
Cottrell started the scoring for the second half when he scored on a 51-yard jaunt, using a burst of speed to lose the Tiger defenders.

The final talley of the evening was set up when Lopez recovered a fumble on the Terra Nova 18. Seven plays later, Vince Nash dove over from the one.

Probably the most disheartening fact facing the Terra Nova squad is the fact that Cottrell is only a junior and will be back next year to hzunt the Tigers and the rest of the North Peninsula League.

South San Francisco will risk its 23-game winning streak against Jefferson next Friday night while Terra Nova will hit the road again and travel to Oceana.





SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO'S Dan Bottini, 84, gives the high sign as Russ Cottrell, 24, crashes through for a touchdown in the powerful Warriors' tilt with Terra Nova Friday night. South San Francisco beat the Tigers 40-0.

10's and 20's Seeking Win

Both Westmoor's 10's and 20's basketball teams are anxiously looking for a victory Thursday when they host Jefferson, their arch-rivals. As it is, the 10's and 20's teams have finally "elled-up" after a black week starting October 4 when both teams fell to Jefferson, as well as South City two days later.

Rebounding the following week, both teams had a "gold star" week as they vanquished El Camino and Terra Nova.

On October 11, the 20's conquered El Camino easily with a score of 70-51 and went on to crush Terra Nova 50-39 October 13. Faring just as well, the 10's beat the El Camino Colts 48-32 and the Terra Nova Tigers 36-22.

The 10's team found no problems as they trounced El Camino 48-32. Good teamwork and fast hustling were contrived to keep a good margin of lead for the entire game.

High scorers for the Rams were Mike Brown with 16 points and Sid Smith with 10 points. Reaping 12 points for the Colts was forward Mike Walters.

Almost attaining an all-time high score, the 20's men in green rolled over the Colts 70-51. Together scoring all but 20 of the winning point total, Mike Mason went up for 26 points and Ken Duart reaped 24 points.

Hosting Terra Nova, the Ram's played another fine game, winning with a score of 36-22. The Westmoor victory was cheered by an unusually large and spirited group of spectators. Becoming high point man was Mike Brown with 15 points.

Dons' Dandy Formula Equals First Triumph

By GARY WHITE
Post Correspondent

All work and no play makes Don, like John a dull boy. And so it was that the Aragon High School Dons, not wanting to be dull, worked very hard last Friday, scoring in the first two minutes of every quarter before relaxing the remaining 10.

This formula, strange, indeed, was all the Dons needed as they scored a 26-13 victory over the Crestmoor Falcons for their first Mid-Peninsula League triumph of the season.

Even before the Aragon rooting section had arrived at Capuchino Field, quarterback Bob Irish had teamed with Bruce Gilmore on a 15-yard pass play to put the Dons on the scoreboard. It took Aragon only six plays to travel 51 yards to the end zone.

That Irish to Gilmore combination proved to be more than the scrappy Falcons from San Bruno had bargained for, as Gilmore hauled in nine Irish aerials during the afternoon for 148 yards and three touchdowns.

And if it wasn't a good enough day for the Irish, young Bobby got Aragon't other touchdown himself on a two-yard run.

Crestmoor, boasting an entire backfield of underclassmen, played one of its finest games of the season, despite not having veteran halfback Jeff Dirking, who injured his knee this week in practice.

Accustomed to setting cleats in opposition territory only a couple of times per game, the Falcons ended that dubious tradition in the first half by advancing into Aragon territory each of five times they had the ball.

Aragon's second half scores came on Irish passes of 23 and eight yards to the elusive wingback Gilmore, the final one capping a drive that took only three plays.

Crestmoor, moving on the rushing talents of jumpin' Juris Dumpis, marched 61 yards for its first touchdown of the 1966 MPL seson, with Dumpis going in from a yard out. The Falcons got another before the game ended, when they impressively moved 96 yards in six plays on the passing arm of quarterback Glen Grossman. He completed a 13-yard toss to end Don Broga for the final TD.

That Crestmoor moved the ball came as a mild surprise to the Dons, but not nearly as big a one as when the Falcons didn't. On one Crestmoor drive, Aragon's rooting section longly shouted "Hold that Line,'" even after Crestmoor had lost the ball on downs.

Other than that, who could complain?

Jeff Hi C's Beat S.S.F. By 1 Point

The Jefferson High School "C's" pulled out possible their most important basketball win at South San Francisco, 30-29.

Both teams were tough on the boards, but Jeff shot 34 per cent while South City put 24 per cent of their shots through the hoop.

South City used full court press, but didn't capitalize on it.

The game was close all the way with both teams showing fine defenses. Neither was effective offensively.

Jeff stayed in the game on the rebounding of Dale Conway, Jim Golden, and Mike Mjehovich and on the shooting of Jim Golden and Andy Furtch.

Mike Macia, Ed Berry, and Mike Mjehovich broke South San Francisco's press with their ball handling and passing.

Jefferson's "C's" exercised a highly successful full court press and easily beat Oceana, 44-30.

The game was close, 16-14, Jeff, at half-time, but when the Indians began their full-court press, the game was broken wide open.

Andy Furtch and Dale Conway controlled the rebounds.

Fall Touch Football For Junior High

The Daly City Recreation Department has officially opened its 1966 Fall Touch Football program for all boys in the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades.

The program will consist of three divisions: Midget League, fifth and sixth grade boys; Intermediate League, seventh grade only; Junior League, eighth grade only.

Teams are forming right now, so any persons interested should report to the nearest playground or supervised school area and sign up with the recreation leader on duty between 3:30 and 5 p.m. weekdays or 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturdays.

Any independent teams wishing to participate in this league will certainly be welcome, however, they should contact Mickey Corso, recreation supervisor, to receive further information regarding rules and regulations of the league.

Horseshoe Tournament

The Daly City Recreation Department recently featured an Adult Singles Horseshoe Tournament at Westlake Park in which some of the city's finest horssehoe throwers participated.

Mike DeBernardi defeated Jerry Judge in an "extra inning" contest to win the championship in the "C" Division. DeBernardi swept through the "C" Division as he also collected wins over Art Nelson, Dale Heiberger and Hank Ayala.

Ronald Riggs walked away with the "B" division championship as he mowed down three worthy opponents. Fine games were turned in from Chet Olmanson, John Zupancis and Mr. Palen.

Jeff Tramples H.M.B. High

The Half Moon Bay Cougars may not be the most successful team in prep football, but nobody can accuse them of not being colorful.

As expected, the Cougars dropped another game yesterday, losing to Jefferson High, 33-20, in a North Peninsula League scrap on the loser's field.

Coach Jerry Murphy, however, brought the Cougar fans to their feet when his team came out in old "Chicago Spread" in the final quarter. "The Chicago Spread," a formation invented by George Halas back in the 1930s, puts three men on one side of the field, six on the other side and leaves just the center and quarterback in the middle of the field.

And the formation worked with success on at least one of the four occasions it was used as Tony Lampkins took the pass from quarterback Harry Mullins and went 50 yards for a score.

The Indians rolled out to a quick 13-0 lead and increased it to 20-0 before the first period was over.

Halfback Rick Britton started the parade of tallies when he romped 32 yards on the first down. The Jeffs got their second scoring opportunity moments later when they took over a fumbled punt on the Cougar three-yard line. On the first play, Tabucchi plunged over for the TD.

Half Moon Bay made its bid for prominence late in the fourth quarter. Lampkins scored on the "Chicago Spread" play before the Cougars marched again, moving 53 yards in six plays, with Lampkins taking a six-yard scoring toss from Mullins for the final tally.

El Camino Hi Takes Second League Win

El Camino High School's football team currently leads the North Peninsula League standings, maintaining their security yesterday on the passing arm of Frank Lucia and a safety.

The Colts' quarterback connected on scoring passes of 72 and 43 yards to Dave Landers and Tom Tyler in leading South San Francisco's "other team" to a 16-6 victory over Westmoor. It was El Camino's second triumph without defeat in NPL competiiton.

The victors got on the scoreboard early in the contest when a Westmoor ball carrier was tackled in the end zone for a safety. Westmoor came back to go ahead of the visitors on an electrifying, 75-yard punt return by George Sirianni.

We made the car go faster.
And the engine go slower.

We've added a full 3 m.p.h. to the top speed of the Volkswagen.
If that doesn't sound like a lot to you, it's because it isn't. And wasn't meant to be. We put most of the power increase (from 50 horsepower to 53) into the lower gears. So you could climb hills easier. And accelerate quicker.
But we didn't do all this at the expense of the engine. In fact, we made the engine turn even slower. So it would last even longer.
You'll be very happy to know this speedy new Volkswagen has dual brakes as standard equipment. If the front brakes should ever fail, the rear brakes will stop you. And vice versa.
We even put in some changes you can see, like retracting seat belts, recessed inside door handles, and back-up lights. They're standard, too.
And so are the letters V-O-L-K-S-W-A-G-E-N on the engine lid.
So you'll recognize the new bug when it passes you.
With its new, slower engine.

Jinx on Jefferson High Cross-Country Runners

There seems to be a jinx on the Jeff cross-country team. They have now tried to run against Melo-Atherton twice this year and failed both times due to fouled buses.

The first meet that was scheduled was cancelled because a bus never showed up at Jeff to bring the team to Menlo-Atherton. Just last week they tried again, but to no avail.

This time it was a broken down bus. While on the freeway the bus driver noticed there was no oil pressure. He then pulled off the freeway and stopped at a gas station in San Carlos and waited until a new bus was sent.

Oceana Remains Winless

Oceana High failed to make the winners' column again last week, dropping a hard-fought contest to St. Elizabeth's of East Oakland, 19-13.

Oceana's Joe Nuttal set up the first score on the first play of the game when he dashed 53 yards on the kick-off return. He scored a few plays later.

The NPL team scored again on a pass from Harold Morton to end Bruce Bazzini in the third quarter, but St. Elizabeth's 11 came back to clinch the game with a tally in the final quarter.

Oceana now has a 0-1-3 record, and is scheduled to take on Terra Nova this week.

D.C. Touch Football Action Heavy

Action resumed last week in the Daly City Recreation Department-Colma School Touch Football League as the Nomads blanked the Bullfrogs 25-0. Smokey Morton threw two TD passes to Ron Haynes while Jim Gentile scored the other touchdown.

In the other contest the Vikings blanked their opponent, the Jokers, 20-0, as Raul Villareal scored one touchdown and threw a TD pass to Jack Funes for the other.

The Nomdas nipped the Chevys 15-12 as Gary Goldie and Jim Gentile caught touchdown passes from their quarterback, Smokey Morton. Jim Maggi tagged Dave Bias in the end zone for a safety, good for two points, for the Nomads. Bias caught a pass from Rickey Newman and Newman caught a pass from Bias for the Chevy points.

The Hellcats outscored the Mothers 20-12. John Giannini threw two TD passes to Sal Espinosa and one to Ray Besson to lead the winners' attack. Tillman passed to John Matteucci and Kenny Smith for the Mother touchdowns.

The Bullfrogs beat the Vikings 20-8 behind the passing of Ray Kaus. Kaus threw a pair of TD passes, one to Gill and another to Tony Amoroso. Dave Mendosa caught a pass from Raul Villereal for the only Viking touchdown.

The Hellcats remained undefeated as they downed the Jokers 18-3. John Giannini was the big man of the game, throwing passes again to Sal Espinosa and Ray Besson. Giannini ran for a TD too. Rene LaGuardia kicked a 17-yard field goal for the lone Joker points.

The Mothers edged the Nomads 12-6. Kenny Smith caught two touchdown passes from Tillman. Nomad skipper, Smokey Morton, scored the only Nomad touchdown.

Fred Ferrando scored 4 touchdowns as his Horneytoads knocked the Jokers down to the cellar, beating them 36-12. Rene LaGuardia dashed through the Horneytoad defense for one touchdown and hurled a pass to Andy Evangelista for the other score.

November, with its crisp nights, pumpkins and Thanksgiving fare commemorating the Pilgrims' landing at Plymouth and the first harvest in America, is calendar sales month for area Girl Scouts.

From the sale of this very handy appointment calendar, Westlake Scouts derive a return of 5 cents per unit sold.

In years past the funds so secured have been used for such troop projects as:

Re-registering the troop, thus defraying cost to parents; providing funds for materials of service projects — the painting of Christmas cookies for children in local hospitals, making angels for delivery to Mt. St. Joseph, or bed and tray favors — bud vases of artificial flowers — for delivery to Skyline Convlescent Hospital;

Or Troops in the area have put such funds toward their camp and cook-outs, again minimizing the costs of such ventures to their parents and yet still enabling the girls to enjoy and learn from these experiences, which some of them mitht not otherwise have.

The Jefferson Scene
By Lauri Sarubbi

For six weeks this summer one of Jeff's highly scholastic seniors, Gisa Ju was selected to attend the University of Kansas. While there Gisa studied topology (math) and sociology.

Gisa had to apply for this trip. The students were chosen on the basis of grades, standardized test scores, availability of science and math courses, facilities in your high school, and lastly, a teacher's recommendation, in this case, Gisa was recommended by Mr. Braun, Jefferson's chemistry teacher.

Gisa's tutition was paid for by the National Science Foundation. Gisa had to pay for room and board, books, and incidental expenses.

Some of the activities she attended were concerts put on by the high school students in the music program there, dances, movies, and recreational activities.

Gisa summed up her trip in this way, "Though I didn't get as much out of the program as I had hoped, I did learn a lot and had fun, especially meeting and living with other kids from all over the United States."

Gisa also suggests that any good students who are interested in science should apply to some of these summer programs sponsored by the National Science Foundation in colleges throughout the country. It's a good opportunity!

BY THIS TIME everyone must know about the excellent work being done by such groups as the Westlake Senior Citizens, the Fifty Plus Club in Pacifica and Daly City's Senior Citizens Club. As yet not as well known, but just as worthwhile, is the task being performed by the Brotherhood Way Adult Group, a Montefiore Center project in the Jewish Community Center on Brotherhood Way.

According to Mrs. Suse Moyal, director of the Montefiore Centers, the United Jewish Community Centers and the Council of Jewish Women co-sponsor four centers in this area, the nearest being the one mentioned above.

Currently the emphasis is on the Brotherhood Way Center's first anniversary celebration to be held on October 28. The program will be entitled "Look Back-Look Forth, and Rejoice!" Also to be enjoyed that day will be the first showing in a month-long film series, "Hand in Hand," a movie spanning of generations of history. Mrs. Moyal reports films are being scheduled to run weekly from next week's premier through the month of November.

Mrs. Moyal indicates that the center is hoping of increasing its size and the scope of its activities for the adult group. Senior adults interested in an opportunity to meet each Friday at 12:30 p.m. to discuss current events, literature, see films, play games or enjoy an occassional outing are urged to call her, WA 1-3275 for more information.

DALY CITY CAMP FIRE Girls spent last weekend camping out at the San Francisco Presidio in the newly developed Rob Hill camping area,

The outing was planned by Mrs. Gerald White, junior high camp fire guardian and her committee of guardians and girls. Mrs. James Fisher was the guest speaker at the Friday night council fire program.

It has been a busy month for the camp fire movement on the local level. Early in October Mrs. Charles Bedford, president of the National Council of Camp Fire Girls, Inc., was touring this section of the country.

Mrs. Bedford spent two days in this area meeting girls and discussing the camp fire program with unit leaders.

"DENTAL HEALTH FACTS"
Samll cavities in the teeth can be filled more easily and with less discomfort than large ones.
If decay is neglected it leads to infection and abscess formation. An infected tooth is a hazard to good health and often must be removed.
A tooth that has been lost should be replaced by an artificial one. If it is not, the other teeth will shift. This shifting may lead to more decay and to diseases of the gums.
Irregular placement of the teeth should be corrected for many reasons: To improve appearance, speech, and the ability to chew food and to help prevent other dental diseases.
Have your dentist check for cavities and follow his recommendations if treatment is needed.
Dr. Campbell tries to limit his practice to the making of dental plates, partial plates, removable bridges and extractions for same, however, he recommends that you see your dentist at least twice a year in order to help prolong the use of your natural teeth as dentures are not as efficient as healthy, natural teeth.

Sugar... 'n' Spice

By NELL NORTON

What would your reaction be, dear hearts and gentle readers, if today I mention that Christmas is just a little over two months away? Would you scream, crumple up the paper in a ball and throw it into the corner? Or bust into tears and say, "Nell Norton is a big spoil sport, Christmas isn't coming for months and months and months"? Or look at your calendar and say, "Gosh, she's right. It is just about two months away"?

To be honest, I am of the "crumple and cry" school of thought. There are too many things to do right now for me to think about Christmas. However one must be a realist and though it's hard to get much Christmas spirit worked up in October, it is time to start on this very special fruitcake.

Most of the recipes offered in this column are tested within a month of the printing. Fruitcakes however have to be tested a full year ahead. The cake I'll talk about today was baked last October and is as delicious today as it was at Christmas. It is one of three cakes I made and the reason I'm starting it early is that it requires longer than the other fruit cakes to mellow.

This recipe, you'll note, calls for no liquid such as fruit juice, or wine, no spices of any kind, and no raisins and no preserves. The wonderful flavor of this cake can be explained by the fact that the wine, whisky or brandy permeates the fruit and nuts, giving them a soft moist texture after proper aging.

BOHEMIAN CHRISTMAS CAKE

2 pounds dates
1 pound whole English walnuts (4 cups)
1 pound whole Brazil nuts (2½ cups)
½ pound whole glazed cherries
1 pound large chunks candied pineapple
½ pound large chunks citron
2 cups flour
2 cups sugar
2½ teaspoons baking powder
5 eggs, beaten

Seed and cut dates into large pieces, add the rest of the fruits and nuts. Sift dry ingredients together and then sift over fruits. Beat the eggs and pour over all. Blend thoroughly and pour into prepared tube pan. Bake in a very slow oven (275 degrees) for approximately 3 hours. Test with a straw or cake tester to see cake is done. Allow to cool completely. Then wrap loosely in a clean cloth and store in an airtight container or can. Moisten cloth with wine, brandy or whisky. This makes a very large cake.

As I mentioned in the first part of the column, this cake keeps indefinitely. I still have almost a fourth of the cake I made last year and it is still moist and delicious. I remoist the wrapping cloth whenever it seems to be getting dry, and this addition adds to the flavor of the cake.

Now to talk about the preparation of the pan. Since fruitcakes take such a long time to bake, you give them extra protection by lining the pans with heavy brown paper. Both the pans and the paper should be greased. Do all this before you start mixing your cake, for it's rather a sticky job and you don't want to have to stop right in the middle of mixing to do it.

Pacifica C-C Hears Talk By Insurance Man

Insurance Broker Mort Levinson was speaker at Thursday's general membership meeting of the Pacifica Chamber of Commerce.

Explaining the rating system and other aspects of the insurance business, Levinson said the recent racial turmoil in the Hunters Point district of San Francisco "will very definitely influence the insurance rates in the area."

He said insurance companies will "take a long look" at any client in the riot-torn area.

Stanley R. Vander Hule, chairman of the chamber's "Miss Pacifica" pageant committee, reported over half the funds for the $1,000 scholarship that will go to the 1967 winner of the pageant has been raised.

The committee negotiating with state pageant officials to allow "Miss Pacifica" to compete directly in the "Miss California" competition.

Two new members were accepted into the chamber, bringing total membership to 86. There were 44 members present.

SEVEN RULES TO HELP IN DECORATING

1. Let your home reflect your own personality. Learn from — but do not copy — your friends and neighbors.

2. Combine beauty with comfort. Choose furniture that's lovely to look at and to live with.

3. Don't overcrowd rooms.

4. Use color lavishly, whether you like monotones, harmonizing or contrasting color schemes. Avoid drabness.

5. Mix—don't match. Mix periods, wood finishes, and fabric textures so that each item in the room will have a character of its own. Your items do not have to MATCH but they must BLEND together beautifully.

6. Use your imagination, have the courage to express yourself and keep in mind good taste.

7. Sketch a lay-out of your rooms. In a new home this can be done right on the plans. Your furniture dealer can help you — and we invite you to come in and take advantage of our free decorator service.

Our decorators, here at Sterling Furniture in Westlake Shopping Center are at your service no matter what your decorating problem may be. We are open Wednesday and Friday evenings 'til 9 p.m. for your shopping convenience or call PL 6-7500.

Library's Friends Plan Meeting

The friends of the Daly City library will hold its first general membership meeting on October 20, at 8 p.m. in the Coral Room of the Westlake Library, 275 Southgate Avenue.

The speaker for the occasion will be Dr. Harry B. Green whose subject will be "one collector's item: Lost Cities."

Dr. Green is professor of art at San Francisco College. A graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, he received his master's degree at Columbia University in New York, and his doctorate in art education at Stanford University.

His thesis "The History of Art Education in the United States" is still referred to by art professors at that university.

He collaborated on two books: one "The Visual Arts" is presently the required text at more than 30 colleges throughout the country. Dr. Green refers to himself as a "collector of lost cities, pretty much as other might collect moustache cups."

His collection began with his interest in archaelogy, and it took him many years and miles of travel to see and investigate first hand Pompeii in Italy, Machu Picchu in Peru. Angkor in Cambodia, Baelbeck in Lebanon, Knossus on the Island of Crete, and Luxor Temple in Egypt.

Last summer he added the Toltec and Mayan ruins at Chichen Itza located in Yucatan, Mexico. His "Lost City Collection" is in his library in the form of volumes which he wrote and hand bound. Hand bookbinding is his next absorbing interest. A practically lost art, Dr. Green is reviving it by teaching classes in the evenings at San Francisco State College.

Dr. Green is also a familiar figure at art shows in the Bay Area where he serves as judge, the most recent of which was the exhibition by the inmates of San Quentin prison.

The public is invited.

NAPP BAR MITZVAH

Dateline: Westmoor

What makes a "good" teacher?

This question was put to six students from Westmoor High School in Daly City by a group of student teachers at San Francisco State College.

The Westmoor students who attended this seminar on October 7, included four seniors and two juniors. They were Student Body President Rich Esposto, Student Body Secretary Pat Brennan, Faye Bussey, Marie Chu, Barbara Disque, and Stephanie Floyd.

AFTER introducing themselves, the six Westmoorites were asked questions by the student teachers and also given the opportunity to ask questions themselves.

The student teachers who were all in their last year of college, realized that during the five years that had lapsed since they were in high school, many changes had occurred in the methods of teaching and in what the high schools expected of the teachers as well as vice versa.

To bridge this gap the student teachers were interested in the ideas of the Westmoorites in relation to what qualities they liked best in a teacher's methods of teaching.

Another idea that was discussed was if the teacher is enthusiastic not only about his subject, but also about helping students who are not prticularly interested in his subject to learn it, does this create a better atmosphere for learning and will the student puck up some of the teacher's enthusiasm.

DIFFERENCES between college life and high school life were also discussed. The student teachers taking part in this discussion had all visited Westmoor and had had the opportunity to sit-in on classes. The Westmoor students selected to attend this seminar were chosen with the idea in mind that they would represent different aspects of "life at Westmoor." Thus, the student teachers were able to get a more complete picture of how high school students felt about the ideas that were discussed.

Arrangements for the seminar, which lasted from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., were made by Robert Nissen who is on leave from teaching at Westmoor and who is now supervising master teachers at San Francisco State College.

THE WESTMOOR High School chapter of the California Scholarship Federation have elected this year's class officers. Elected president, was senior Dick Thill; senior, Chuck Johnston was elected vice president, and junior, Betty HodgsRiss was elected secretary-treasure.

At the same meeting, the 95 CSF members decided to tour the U.C. campus at Berkeley for their field trip in November.

CSF is a service organization for both school and community. It is also an honor society for students with high scholastic averages.

Life members of CSF are eligible for special scholarships at colleges both in California and out of state. Also, the Westmoor chapter of CSF awards $25 book scholarships to its most outstanding life members. The CSF members make the money for these scholarships themselves by staging car washes or by selling concessions such as portfolios, pens, or book-covers.

To become a member of CSF, a student must make at least 10 points on his previous semester report card. Three points are given for an A, and one point for a B. Additional points are given to students who hold student body offices, class offices, or CSF offices during the semester.

LIFE membership is awarded to those students who are members of CSF for four of the last six semesters. One of those semesters must be in the senior year. Life members have the distinction of having the CSF gold seal on their diploma and transcripts. They

Pansy a Colorful Ground Cover

The 1966 All-America pansy selections winners, the F-1 Hybrid Majestic Gaints, originated by T. Sakata and Company, Yokohama, Japan, start blooming two to three weeks ahead of the older strains and continue blooming well into the warm weather.

The pansy, one of our most colorful and dependable of low-growing plants for use as a ground cover over bulbs, is The Times Plant of the Week. The 1966 All-America Selections Award winners add a new thrill to growing this popular annual.

The 1966 AAS winners are F-1 Majestic Giant pansies that produce flowers of immense size. We were privileged to grow these pansies last year and we found the plants to be remarkably vigorous and the blooms unbelievably big. We measured several blooms and found that during the peak of the flowering season most of the flowers measured four-inches in diameter and some were five-inches across. We also found that the plants continued to produce good blooms long after our other pansies had folded for the year.

The F-1 Majestic Giant pansies are available now from most of the better nurseries and garden supply houses on the Peninsula. Seed was made available to bedding plant growers in a limited quantity in July of 1965 and this last July seed was in ample supply for both the bedding plant grower and the amateur gardener. The seed wholesaled at $60 an ounce. This wasn't as expensive as it sounds as there are approximately 20,000 seeds to an ounce.

Ordinarily we recommend that homeowners start their pansies from seed which should be sown in July. But the modern garden seldom has room for flats of seed and where space is limited we recommend it be used for growing the unusual plants that bedding plant growers cannot afford to grow. Also, we find that most nuseries are selling these new 1966 AAS winning pansies for the same price as the older varieties.

If you are planting pansies over a freshly planted bulb bed all that is needd is setting the plants out as the soil is already prepared. If, like many of us, you want to use the plants as a ground cover for tulips, hyacinthis or bulbs that must be planted a couple of months from now, the soil should be prepared deeply so all that is needed is to plant the bulbs between the violet plants. This is the procedure that is practiced by George Kelley at the Hillsdale Mall. In fact Kelley does so much of this type of planting he invented a special planting tool, shaped like a cookie cutter, to plant the bulbs between the pansy plants.

Plenty of humus should be incorporated into the soil where the pansies are to grow for pansies want a maximum amount of moisture and plenty of depth for their roots. We water our newly set out pansy plants with a quarter strength fertilizer solution. In fact we add a small amount of liquid fertilizer to the irrigation water each week until the plants are well established. Once the plants are established we fertilize every four weeks throughout the growing and blooming season. This fertilizer-watering program has proven to be quite beneficial to the bulbs.

Contrary to the advice in most garden books you don't have to keep the spent blooms picked off the plants. We did pick many of the blooms for bouquets but no effort was

Spring Planting Week Bill

By IVA NEWMAN

The House of Representatives in Washington, D. C., has passed a bill to make the first week in October of each year, "Spring Planting Week" in the United States. The Senate has not acted on the bill as yet, but most legislators feel that the bill will be given an OK. The first week of October is considered the "best average time" to plant bulbs. However, it is too early for the Peninsula area by almost two months because our soil and climate does not really cool until December.

Tulips and hyacinths need cool soil plus moisture for approximately eight to twelve weeks in order to develop a root system large enough to support a long, strong stem and a good flower. The soil should be cool enough to prevent top growth until after the roots are formed.

We talked to Elmer Merz, executive secretary of the California Association of Nurserymen, last week on this subject. He stated definitely that October is at least two months too early to plant most bulbs in the mild climate sections of California.

Daffodils and bulbs in pots could possibly be the exceptions to the need for late planting. Daffodils are among our toughest, most dependable bulbs. They will produce presentable blooms from bulbs planted early or late but for really long-stemmed, large-sized blooms that will look like the ads in the bulb catalogs and the blue-ribbon winners at the flower shows, they too, must be planted after the soil becomes cool.

Climate and soil for bulbs in pots can be controlled by the grower in most instances. The higher and thicker you pile the wet sawdust over and around the pots of bulbs, the cooler will be the growing condition. By setting the pots or cold frame in the coolest part of the garden you can lower the temperature several degrees.

When we first moved down the Peninsula to live, some 35 years ago, we were told that bulbs, particularly tulips and hyacinths didn't do well. We were advised to skip these garden aristocrats and concentrate on the narcissus. We bought narcissus but we also bought a few tulips and hyacinths. we re-read the books on the planting of these bulbs and followed the instructions faithfully. Both our tulips and our hyacinths started flowering the instant they emerged from the soil. They had almost no stem. We were told that the climate just wasn't cold enough.

Re-Election Of Younger Urged

When a county, where Democrats outnumber Republicans, elects a Republican congressman for seven consecutive terms there has to be a reason for it.

The reason is the obvious one. People in both parties are convinced they have the best possible man for the job and are determined to retain him in office. It is just that simple.

When that Republican congressman, despite continuous control of the lower house by the opposition party, is able to originate legislation that ultimately leads to creation of two new departments of cabinet rank by the opposing party there has to be a reason for it.

Again, the reason is the obvious one. Legislators in both parties recognize the value of his originations to the nation, and one of them, a ranking opposition member of the House Committee on Governmental Operations, declared to him, "You were a statesman with vision far before your colleagues."

When that Republican congressman sets an amazing record of service to his constituency, bringing them million in federal projects and funds, and giving them individualized attention in Washington, there has to be a reason.

Once more, the reason is obvious. For this he needs and is given the trust and support of other members of Congress in both parties.

No one can possibly be in doubt about this congressman. J. Arthur Younger is his name.

And, as it has done seven times before, The Post proudly recommends to the people of this congressional district that they elect J. Arthur Younger and keep him at the post where he has gained national trust and distinction.

No tyro in politics could serve this district half so well as this experienced statesman who has the trust and confidence of his colleagues and the high committee ranking that makes him a powerful representative for his home county.

Moreover, it is common sense—and not politics—that dictates the wisdom of keeping a congressman of proven ability on a job where he has performed so well for so long and can continue to give representation of the highest order.

Democrats and Republicans, alike, have always received his attention and his best efforts, and the nation has need of seasoned legislators like Younger in a period when the efficacy of government is a paramount need.

Vote for Congressman J. Arthur Younger.

What It Takes To Be a Noontime Playground Supervisor at Pacifica

Just what it takes to be a noontime playground supervisor at elementary schools in Pacifica's Laguna Salada District was spelled out to trustees Tuesday night.

Principal Tom Collins of Sharp Park, detailed tests used in hiring 26 supervisors for 13 schools.

Faculty members aid in this selection from the large group of applicants," he explained.

The supervisors usually work from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., and help children to observe mealtime and playground courtesies and rules of safety.

"They also, by relieving teachers of noon supervision responsibilities and insuring them a duty-free lunch period, contribute indirectly but significantly to the effectiveness of the total classroom instructional programs," he expalined.

Supervisors receive training in the treatment of minor injuires. No uniforms or badges are worn, but they are required to "dress appropriately." Pay is $2 an hour.

Trustee chairman Dr. Rodney A. Clark, asked if such personnel might tend to cause a gap between teachers and the children. He was assured this was not so.

"Teachers and children understand why these people are there, and what to expect from them," Collins said.

The program of school playground development in Pacifica was reflected in a report on 11 projects that ranged from Vallemar's completed one and a half acres to Fairmont's three acres to be constructed in 1966-67.

It is part of the "long range development of school sites by the city and the school district."

Financing is through joint city-school district funds, residue from a five cent override tax and contributions from the city.

"There are also possible Federal Urban Development and Beautification funds," said John C. Munt, superintendent for business.

"Such federal funds may be available through application and justification by the city.

Munt also reported that the administrative staff is concluding an agreement with Challenge Developments, Inc., for purchase of the Park Pacifica School site. He said the graded, finished site cost is $374,000.

THE stabbing of one Westmoor High student by another last Friday has stirred some wonder why two incidents, at an elementary school, had not been brought out publicly until late last week.

One, it is claimed occurred last month, when a ten year old at the FDR School in Daly City was stabbed in the leg; the other involving an eight year old, beaten by three others, same age. The victim, we're told, hovers near death in Kaiser Hospital as a result.

THE same "howcum" thoughts also are becoming outloud about the LSD arrest in South San Francisco of a lad a day or two after the October 6 outlawing. It's never been brought out publicly—but this first such arrest in San Mateo County is common knowledge among the "day trippers" . . .

WE'VE been annoyed by claims of some that a stolen car is such a common occurence they don't justify more than the minor incident label.

Now, it may be true that YOU'VE the money to spend on another auto, or to make up the difference between what your insurance company likely will pay and the cost of another jitney.

But, to us, our car—every beat up inch of it—is worth concern, and a whale of a lot of shoe leather if someone up and takes it—just like that

What's more, we have the archaic—the way people talk today—notion that auto theft is a crime, and that a thief is a thief and should be accorded all punishment.

What's more, we have the archaic (the way people think today) that theft of someone else's property is theft and against the law. We still hold a thief is a thief, whether he takes a grocery cart or a jet airliner.

A car usually represents one of the biggest investments a person has . . . right up close to his house.

But, then, we have forgotten that laws "are made to be broken," that "anything's legal until you're caught" and you can take anything you want, "just so it's not mine!"

More on that . . . another time.

IT wasn't awfully long ago we overheard some mutterings about the unfairness involved in condemnation of longhaired students and the general acceptance of beards on teachers. What is justice for one is justice for all was the cry from a group of Pacificans.

P.S.: We'll think about that, too. . . .

The Marquee

It's Her Own Life

Barbara Bladen

Eve was seduced by a snake into eating the forbidden apple but today's counterpart in the person of Ulla Bergryd finds it easy to say, "no" to temptations and demands.

The young Swedish actress isn't about to let the famous role go to her head. She knew what she wanted when she said "yes" to playing Eve in "The Bible," and "yes" to wearing more hair than clothes (a long blonde wig covers her own long red hair and that's her complete costume) and "yes" to a seven-year contract with Italian producer Dino De Laurentiis.

From there on she started drawing the line, charmingly, politely and with a firm commitment to individuality.

"I don't wear make-up and won't start now, even if they do expect it for television appearances. I want my weekends free, as it states in my contract."

☆ ☆ ☆

She frowned when her chaperone from Twentieth-Century-Fox suggested she order a steak because they were late for a Gypsy Rose Lee television appearance. Where normally the guest would let it pass, putting herself at the complete disposal of the press agents, Miss Bergryd insisted on seeing a menu, ordered what SHE wanted and called for a slice of cheese. When it arrived, she didn't care for the brand and ordered a second slice which she ate with a knife and fork and small dabs of butter.

All this may seem insignificant to her personality but she makes it very clear that having played the part of Eve hasn't changed her as a person, nor will it in the future.

"I'll return to my studies. Not for any future security but to please myself. I'll have to make myself available to Mr. De Laurentiis because of the contract but my life is my own. I don't like all the false information they put into that sheet you're holding. It says I had a date with a boy when they discovered me standing in the Gottenberg Museum. That's all made up. And I'm not 19, I'm 24."

The daughter of a professor of languages and a mother who is a doctor of psychology, the girl who may become the most photographed girl in modern history was a student of anthropology. She received her B.A. in English Literature and will do her Master's thesis on F. Scott Fitzgerald. Her English is excellent and she's just as proficient in German, French, Italian, and Swedish.

As for the nude scene with Michael Parks playing Adam, she's frankly tired of talking about it. "I just acted natural and tried to do what John Huston wanted. But then there is nothing natural about being before a camera."

☆ ☆ ☆

Her request to spend a weekend in San Francisco afforded her the chance to do a few things she really wanted to do, like visiting the Berkeley campus, attend the opera, and do some sight-seeing, including Ghirardelli Square.

"I'm thinking of living in Holland. I don't plan to study acting at all. It gives me a strange feeling that people give me the label of 'actress' when I've only done one picture. I once thought that Hollywood and being a film actress was glamorous but I got over it when I was 12 years old."

The strawberry blonde has a very soft voice but a very strong will. If Eve had been so independent, the world would have been matriarchal from the beginning, which brings us back to "The Bible," subtitled "In the Beginning" featuring Ulla Bergryd as Eve.

Her press releases say she looks little like Ingrid Bergman. We think she looks like Elizabeth Hartman.

"For my next picture I'd like to play a contemporary role, someone with a problem. Did you like 'Morgan'? I thought it was very good. That's the kind of picture I'd like to be in."

Donor of Property Faces Eviction

By DON GRIERSON

A 74-year-old Pacifica woman who once gave 49 parcels of land to San Mateo County and a street and sewer right-of-way easement across prime real estate to the city, will be evicted from her home soon unless the city council overrules an order issued by the building inspector.

Mrs. Hazel Nickola, 2331 Beach Boulevard, has received notice to vacate her property because it fails to meet standards of the Pacifica Building Code. She has lived in the building, which includes her home and a small bait and tackle shop, since 1939.

The building is "generally rundown, and the roof and wiring are in a state of disrepair," and Mrs. Nickola, who lives alone on $75 monthly Social Security, says she cannot possibly implement the needed repairs in the near future.

"I am expecting a settlement from a court case, but it could be as long as a year before the money is available, if it is available then," she said.

She has a suit against a real estate developer who entered into an agreement with her to develop about three acres of beach-front property in 1959. 'To date, there has been nothing done," she said, "and I cannot sell the property. It is tied up."

In 1943, Mrs. Nickola deeded, gratis, 49 lots to San Mateo County for construction of a road. This year, she went to the county and explained her present financial plight, and was told she can receive no welfare funds because of her interest in the beach-front property.

'I won't even be able to pay taxes on the property much longer," she said.

She has been leasing the bait shop premises and the revenue from the lease was applied to her property taxes. Last week, the operator of the shop told her he is moving his business "because of complaints from the building inspector."

Mayor Harland Minshew and council members voted to delay action on the condemnation for 30 days Thursday night. "I hope that in that time something can be worked out," the mayor said.

The Businessman Of the Future

Post readers may not have ever stopped to think about it but they have a young businessman serving them every weekday. He is your Newspaperboy now, but in years to come he stands and excellent chance of becoming a business leader Among today's "men at the top," thousands got their first business experience as Newspaperboys.

All along the ladder of business there are literally millions of men who first learned the habits of industry, responsibility, reliability, economy and honesty carrying newspaper routes. Since 1900 there have been more than 10 million of them.

Yet business education is only one of the advantages enjoyed by newspaper boys. They also have a chance to earn their own way, buying their own clothes, school supplies and the things they want, while early learning the satisfaction that is one of the rewards of work. Too, they are able to take pride in both their earnings and the feeling of accomplishment that comes from doing a job well.

Alarmed Author Views the Scene

At the Riverside Experimental Station, experts of the United States Department of Agriculture and the University of California are developing potatoes that have no bumps and no deep-set eyes, and leave no waste as they go through automatic peelers and automatic slicers to become chips, French fries, or cubes.

Well on its way is a tomato plant with uniform fruits that all get ripe at the same time, stay firm, look nice regardless of flavor, and can be picked by a machine that pulls up the plant.

Already developed are factories that place turkeys on a conveyor belt, electrocute them, scald them, pick their feathers, eviscerate them, singe and wash them, and drop them into chilling tanks.

☆ ☆ ☆

MEANWHILE in Southern California bulldozers are uprooting orange trees faster than one every 55 seconds. In Los Angeles County alone 3,000 acres of orchards were wiped out everyday in 1958. In ten years San Bernardino lost 13,000 acres of oranges in its choice foothills and will lose 11,000 more by 1980. In 1963 California agriculture was losing 375 acres of open land each day to housing developments, factories, and freeways.

However, officially California takes no alarm at these developments. Statisticians argue that California agriculture will suvive, but with different crops and in different areas. "Look," they say, "at the development of new lands in former desert regions." They point to thousands of acres of flax, alfalfa, sugar beets, lettuce, carrots, cantaloupes, peas, and watermelons in the once arid regions of San Jaoquin County and in the Imperial Valley.

The developers and the planners are not alarmed that pavement and housing have covered a million acres of farm land since 1945. Modern irrigation, they argue, scientific innovations and agri-business can develop erstwhile waste lands to produce food for California's people.

The issues that these developments present are discussed in a book that should be a must on everyone's reading list—"Eden in Jeopardy" by Richard G. Lillard, who has taught courses in American civilization at UCLA, Los Angeles City College, Harvard and others.

☆ ☆ ☆

"EDEN in Jeopardy" describes and diagnoses the big, tangible twentieth century changes. The author's concern is the magnitude of the cumulative, overwhelming peacetime activity that creates or destroys scenery and buildings. He believes there is in California a disproportionate mobilization of men and energy for high-pressured, ceaseless pursuits connected only with the material side of life. "Serious indeed," he wrote, "are the implications of man's present compulsion to congest population and then to solve the consequent problems with gigantic impersonal mechanisms."

Doctor Lillard warns that man's enormous meddling may jeopardize his pattern of life and even his biological relationship with his environment. He believes the time has come for men to "take heed, to take stock of humanistic values and the means of achieving them, to discipline change."

"Men must plan for and plan against. They must act to ameliorate and to conserve. This holds true in jet-set capitals and in travel poster villages, in old resort towns, in river valleys, in recreation and historical areas from the Zambesi to the Yukon."

"Eden in Jeopardy" is an open letter by a well-trained, and alarmed observer.

Better Business

Not All of Those Contracts Binding

Lorene Beasley

UNCONSCIONABLE CONTRACT NOT BINDING—The United States Court of Appeals in a recent case decided that if an installment sales contract is unconscionable, it is unenforceable. The case concerned the sale of a $514 stereo set to a woman with seven children whose sole income was a monthly welfare check of $218.

The court said:

"Ordinarily, one who signs an agreement with full knowledge of its terms might be held to assume the risk that he has entered a one-sided bargain.

But, when a party of little bargaining power, and hence little real choice, signs a commercially unreasonable contract with little or no knowledge of it, it is hardly likely that his consent or even an abject manifestation of his consent was even given to all the terms.

In such a case, the usual rules that the terms of the agreement are not to be questioned should be abandoned and the court should consider whether the terms of the contract are so unfair that the enforcement should be withheld."

VERBAL ASSURANCES DO NOT COUNT—The man had signed a conditional sales contract for the purchase of an expensive health device.

"But," he argued, "the salesman assured me that any money I invested in this apparatus would be fully refunded if I was not completely satisfied."

Unfortunately, verbal guarantees are not binding. The man will have to carry out his written commitment. NEVER rely on verbal guarantees. Insist upon getting any guarantee in writing!

IS A GUARANTEE GOOD IF THE FIRM GOES OUT OF BUSINESS?—The guarantee is worthless. A guarantee is only as good as the merchant who stands behind it.

STORES ARE NOT LIABLE FOR GENUINE ADVERTISING MISTAKES—The consumer can be grossly unfair in his treatment of legitimate business and will often try to take advantage of a genuine mistake. When the advertising media makes a mistake, the customer cannot expect either media or the store to "make good."

However, if a pattern of mistakes keep emerging, it may be possible that bait advertising or some other malpractices may be involved.

The customer should check with the Better Business Bureau regarding unsatisfactory business transactions.

Laguna Salada Report Card Changes Proposed

A change in the method of reporting a pupil's academic progress has been proposed in the Laguna Salada school district.

David Pearson of Pacifica's Cabrillo school discussed concern over report cards with district trustees last Tuesday night.

He explained that "several schools have expressed concern regarding the problems of recording grades for students of a single card, when a student in the upper grade program may work with several teachers during the day."

A committee of ten teachers from local schools recommended "the use of a five-part card with one card per subject going home each report period . . . and a compilation of each student also made."

Pearson urged a long range study on report cards.

Trustee Dr. Charles A. Hauser, commenting on the "key to grading." "This is serious. Can we generate something with more interest than this term of average?"

This and "under-achieving children" brought remarks that the proposed report card was a good form on which to inform parents, the board reminded, that the pupils also were interested in their reports.

It was suggested that a child might be as puzzled by the proposed card form itself as by the present-day system of grading on citizenship, study habits and grade levels.

Broadmoor Church Tells Sunday Plans

There are two well-staffed Sunday School sessions at the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church, 377 Eighty-seventh Street, Daly City. Children and youth are registered in the school office at the church and introduced to their department rooms.

They are made acquainted with their teachers who take a personal interest in each pupil. The teaching materials are graded for each age level for use with the Bible. This year's teaching theme is "Jesus Christ."

Regular attendance is encouraged at the hour for which a pupil is registered. The first session is at 9:30 a.m. and the second session is at 11 a.m.

Greeting the pupils at the door each Sunday are general superintendents John Rued and Fred Teffault, along with the official greeters, Dale Powers and Bunny Gillespie. There are departments for those of three years of age through high school.

There is infant care for the younger children to allow parents to attend the 9:30 and 11 a.m. worship services.

Some of the 40 teachers are Dawn Klevesahl and Marion Perkov with beginners, Carol Hilton and Eunice Brabec with kindergartners, Katherine Dang and Lois Floyd with first graders, Marjie McBride and Carol Corlett with primary, Ruth Hoppin and Jack Sheets with juniors, John Johnson and Flip Reade with junior highs, and Bill Mason and Tom House with high school.

The Rev. Herbert Tweedie, the pastor, issues a cordial invitation for children and youth to enroll in Sunday School to receive spiritual and moral training.

Lutheran Men Will Attend Convention

The senior Luther Leaguers at Our Reedemer's Church are busily making plans for the South Pacific District Luther League Convention in Palm Springs, November 25-27. To defray expenses for air travel and registration, they are conducting an intensive fund-raising campaign through the sale of a new cleaning product.

The convention program promises to be well worth the efforts being expended. The two major speakers will be Nelson Trout and Dar Roa, who have on many occasions demonstrated their ability to communicate with youth. The central theme of the program is "Knowing" with special emphases upon recognizing darkness and upon the validity and power in knowing the Light of Jesus Christ. Hence, the popular title is "GOTTALIGHT?"

Leaguers planning to go to Palm Springs are: Craig Boblitt, Todd Gibson, Corrine Isakson, Pam Pontiff, Gaylee Gulbrandson, Bob Trisler, Dave Hall, and Mary Tweet. Accompanying the leaguers as sponsor and advisor will be Larry Nelson, intern pastor of Our Redeemer's.

BOBBY CLARK, the modern Merlin whose sleight-of-hand displays mark him as one of the best, showed Cas Boxley of the Cameo Club management a book of famous magic acts. When Boxley, who is also an outstanding magician, looked into "101 Great Magic Acts," who should he see rating half a page but Cas Boxley and his wife, Marie, who have appeared in the nation's top showrooms and theaters . . . . Why not spend a memorable evening tonight just dining, drinking, and dancing at Fred and Jerry Rapp's Holiday Inn in South San Francisco? In addition to the new Lancer Lounge that serves 18 different varieties of hot hors d'ouevres nightly, the "Inn" has also enlarged its dining facilities. The Gary Long Trio is featured for dinner-dancing in the Royal Hall dining room every Friday and Saturday night. Don't forget Gary's piano-bar entertaining during the week nights . . .

YOUR BANQUET OR DINNER meeting will be a luxurious experience when arranging to have it at Dan Biagi and Rene Cansbou's Cote D'Azure Continental restaurant in Atherton. Superb cuisine is served swiftly and silently. The Cote D'Azure is also ideal for small conventions . . . Looking for a fun place to dine in congenial surroundings? The Blue Peacock restaurant in Kings Bowl, Millbrae, fills the bill. Serving both full course dinners and a la carte orders. The fabulous Romanos play for dancing Friday and Saturday nights . . . The food, atmosphere and facilities at Dave Rasmussen's Shadows in San Mateo certainly must agree with everyone. No matter whether it's for lunch, cocktails, or dinner, this popular place is capacity filled. Hats off to Host Duane Eckert, Manager George McCaman, and chef Bill Mills for a job "well done."

YOU WOULDN'T BELIEVE IT, but Tara, the Topless Snake Dancer at the Brass Rail in Sunnyvale, was once deathly afraid of snakes. But when the "Queen of the Topless," decided her career needed a gimmick, she imported boas from South America. She rehearsed in her living room for six months, then hit North Beach like Clyde Beatty. The Los Gatos girl now dances nightly while the reptile encompasses her 40-24-37 figure as Jimmy Mamou's Batmen play rock and roll music. She's now added a topless monkey to the act . . . Doran's Supper Club in Belmont boasts of a very selective menu of plate pleasers . . . Your motel reservations at South Shore, Lake Tahoe are guaranteed when signing up for the Seven Eleven overnight tours. You receive a cash refund, cocktail at Harrah's, and a room at one of the de luxe motels within walking distance of the casino . . . Popular on SF's busy Broadway is the Galaxie's Amateur Topless dancers, who go on every hour, seven nights a week.

ENTERTAINMENT REIGNS SUPREME seven nights a week at the Hilton Inn at the Airport. Whether it's doing the Frug, Swim, or Watusi Wiggle upstairs at Bill Gilbert's wild Tiger Club, or listening to modern jazz, pop songs, or show tunes by Maurice Anger at the piano-bar downstairs in the Mark Twain Lounge, name it and it's available at the Hilton Inn, home of "the most beautiful girls in the world" . . . The plush Black Horse in Burlingame not only appeals to young swingers, but to the sporting crowd as well. Of course, a 25-inch color TV, rigged for Channel 12 and the 49'er games, may be behind the popularity. You'll meet almost everyone here. Saturday and Sunday, the Black Horse now opens at 10 a.m. . . . A gourmet treat with the Hotel Canterbury's prime rib dinner is their crisp, well-chilled greens salad, tossed from the cart at your table with a choice of dressings.

WANT TO BE A HERO OR HEROINE with your company? Next time you're planning a group party, banquet, or convention, have it at Plateau 7, the gourmet sky-high restaurant in San Jose. Gourmet foods, connoisseur wines, and unrivalled service is the order of the day. Call 297-7775 and ask for Andre — he'll put you right in for the fun time of your life. Talented Mike Maffei headlines the nightly entertainment . . . Live vicariously and enjoy the atmosphere of the Islands at Jim Boasso's Kahili Hut in Belmont. It's a great place to go to get away from it all—anytime. Pianobar entertainment on Friday and Saturday nights . . . Reservations for wedding receptions at Monty's financial district restaurant are a regular event. Make reservations now to do your entertaining at Monty's, formerly "Big Ben's" . . . Folks are flocking to Gomans Gay 90's to see the famed nude painting of "Stella" actually come to life! It's an eyefilling scene.

BIMBO opened the "Oriental Holiday Revue" at his celebrated 365 Theater Restaurant last Monday, October 17, featuring the world renowned Takeuchi Keigo with his Imperial Dancers from Japan. Also starring, the multi-talented musician, singer and comedian, Poncie Ponce, from the ABC television series "Hawaiian Eye"; and San Francisco's own young singing sensation, Primo Kim, and the beautiful operatic voice of Ayako Hosokawa. Of all the beautifully staged dance numbers to be performed, perhaps the most unusual and striking is a solo reminiscent of the NO Theater, in which Takeuchi, dressed in white kimono and green sash, performs a dramatic, symbolic interpretation of man's conflicting emotions. For the pleasure of the general public, cocktails are served from 5 p.m.; dinners from 6 p.m. The music of Roy Palmer and the Orchestra for dancing.

Plane Assembled In Hyatt House' Banquet Room

Don't ever wager Ed Sullivan, general manager of the Burlingame Hyatt House, that an airplane wasn't put together in the Marquee Room, (just one of the many lavish Hyatt House banquet sites.) James A. Koertge of the Cessna Aircraft did just that during a recent three-day meeting with local representatives.

The plane was brought in—part by part, assembled in four hours and ready to take to the air. This wasn't one of those miniature jobs, either — it was ready for transportation. However, I didn't stay to see if Ed "took off."

Standing Ovations At the Edgemar Club

The disrobing acts at Larry's Edgemar in Pacifica rate high on the "Where to go" scene, this weekend. When the jam-packed audiences give a standing ovation at the end of each show, you know they must be good. The all-new Fall revue is presented every Wednesday through Sunday. If you're coming as a group, it wouldn't hurt to give Manager Bill Granger a call so he can arrange a front-row table for you. Cocktail lounge is open daily from 2 p.m.

Gourmet Room A Reno Harrah's Club Attraction

A new era of dining elegance has emerged on the Reno scene. It's the Gourmet Room in Harrah's Casino Restaurant expansion. In addition to a menu certain to indulge the fancy of the most discriminating epicure, the Gourmet Room offers a soothingly quiet atmosphere enhanced by tasteful decor.

A cocktail lounge nestles restfully into the surroundings and is available for the couple, or party, who desires a refreshing beverage before, during, or after dinner.

Service in the dining room features a staff of highly trained personnel many of whom gained their experience in the finest restaurants on the European continent.

Located in the heart of downtown Reno, the Gourmet Room opens daily at 6 p.m., with service until midnight. The cocktail lounge opens for patron service at 5 p.m. and continues through 1 a.m.

Paoli's Pinafore Room, a pop stop for the Montgomery Street set, brings back old San Francisco with all its elegance. This has to be a must on your dine out evening.

After trying a juicy filet at Fabbro's, popular Redwood City restaurant, I believe Owner Frank Fabbro when he says, "Lunches served at Fabbro's are among the best on the Peninsula."

"HOLD THOSE TIGERS!" — The new models for '67 are already out at Burlingame Motors, as well as at Bill Gilbert's Tiger Club at the Hilton Inn. Pictured here around their new Tiger Car, which was given to them by auto mogul Jerry Bromberg, are (left to right) Tiger Kittens Carol Moore, Jeannine Mattei, Barbara Espinosa, Dora Gibson, Rita Day and "Sheena," who dances in the glass Tiger Cage.

Joe Ercoli "Runs Out of Gas" on Bay

You're leaning in the right direction when you try the delightful cuisine served at the Leaning Tower in South San Francisco. Recently, Owner Joe Ercoli and a host of friends were saved from possible danger by the Coast Guard. It seems they were out in the middle of the Bay on a large power cruiser when they ran out of gas. However, Joe guarantees not to run out of food at his Leaning Tower.

Rudolfo's Steaks Broiled Before Your Eyes

When you dine at Rudolfo's in Palo Alto, try one of their superior steaks. The U.S.D.A. choice, corn-fed beef is so tender, you wouldn't believe it. After ordering a New York steak or Filet Mignon, help yourself at the salad bar — eat all you wish, too. Then watch your steak being charcoal broiled on the grill in the center of the dining room.

☆

Banquet Business Booming at The International Inn

Many people feel a sure sign of the quality of a restaurant is their amount of banquet business. If so, the International Inn in South San Francisco is one of the finest. Banquet business here is at an all-time high, according to General Manager Phil Rauscher.

☆

For all you golf fanciers: This is the time of the year for the Pacifica Lions Club Golf Tournament. The buffet and luncheon will be held at Nick's, Rockaway Beach, following the tournament. You can pick up entry blanks anytime this week.

☆

Phil Lehr has a service we've seldom mentioned here—the catering from his Steakery of outside banquets and parties of all sorts.

☆

Gourmets: Behold the fine list of imported and domestic wines served at La Touraine in Burlingame. Besides the wine, you couldn't find tastier French food anywhere.

Special Cocktail Hour San Mateo Stickney's

The Peninsula "in" crowd has discovered that Stickney's of San Mateo has one of the friendliest cocktail lounges in the San Mateo area, with special "Happy Hour" cocktail prices from 4:30 to 7, each evening and a large selection of tasty hot and cold hors d'oeuvres. Live piano stylings add to the merriment in this tastefully decorated lounge adjacent to Adrian Stickney's Stagecoach dining room.

If the entry does not pick all games right, then the winner will receive 2 tickets to the Big Game, California vs. Stanford, on November 19. The previous week's contest cash prize will be added to the next week's contest if it is not distributed to a winner. This cash prize will be given to the winner of the final week's contest if it has not been distributed before. The final week's winner will not need to guess all 15 games to win the cash prize. 9. Anyone may enter the contest except employes of The Times or immediate members of their family.
10. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decisions. All entries become the property of The Times, no answers may be returned. The Times reserves the right to correct any typographical errors in the entry blank which affect the outcome of the contest. Answers to the contest or winners' names will NOT be given out over the phone. Winners will be notified by The Times.

ALMA BALIER ON WAY TO SUCCESS

Alma Balier Heading Up As a Singer

Pretty, pert, 22-year-old Alma Balier of San Bruno is what one might call a singer's singer. This term is applied to that kind of artist who has the ability to attract the immediate attention of other professional artists, as well as the public. To the uneducated ear, Alma simply swings, or purrs; to the educated ear, she has the touch of sensitivity that separates excellent from merely good.

Alma traveled extensively during the apprentice stages of her career. As she progressed, her ability carried her to the Stardust Hotel and Harrah's Club in Nevada. She appeared at the Saddle and Sirloin and the Spanish Trails in Tucson. During 1963, San Francisco heard her at the Sir Francis Drake, the Fairmont, the St. Francis, and at the neighboring Cabana in Palo Alto.

Recording companies have taken notice of Miss Balier and several records have been produced. KSFO listeners might recognize her recent cut of "Love 'Em Lightly" heard on those and other airways.

A singer, it could be said, never reaches full maturity. Each song adds a little more finish to a basically talented voice; yet, there comes a time when the artist is suddenly and obviously "ready." By judging performance one can seen that, for Alma Bailer, that time is here.

Entrance Way 'Facelifting' Gains a Look

South San Francisco's "entrance way" was given a new, long range look by that city's planning commissioners last week.

All agreed a facelifting of South Spruce Avenue was needed—and the sooner the better.

The proposed plan would widen South Spruce between South Canal Street and El Camino Real, by some 20 additional feet and provide a green belt down the center.

City Planner Dan Pass said no target date for starting the project had been set, however specific plans for building setbacks had been made.

Scavenger Is Injured

A South San Francisco scavenger was seriously injured last Wednesday when he was hit by a passing motorist.

Police said Enrique Mendoza, 28, was hit by a car driven by Raymond Martin, 37, as he stepped from behind a refuse truck on South Linden Avenue shortly after 6 a.m.

Mendoza was taken to Peninsula Hospital with multiple lacerations, bruises and a fractured left leg.

He is employed by the South San Francisco Scavenger Company.

Thanks' Given By Postmaster

Postmaster Vincent P. Murphy thanked the thosuands of Daly City residents who have been co-operating in a plan to add zip codes to personal mailing lists.

He also urged all those who have not yet sent in their "Zip-a-List" forms to do so.

Equipment Purchase Plan For Laguna Is Outlined

A school equipment purchase program was outlined by Tom McGath, of Westview School for Laguna Salada School District trustees last week.

The plan is intended to speed up acquisition of needed items by allowing purchase as the orders come in.

Carl McCarthy, membership chairman of the San Mateo County Historical Museum, invited the trustees to approve a proclamation observing the 200th anniversary of the discovery of San Francisco Bay by Don Gaspar De Portola.

"This area played a very significant part in the discovery," he said, as it was from Sweeney Ridge that this unsurpassed discovery was made by Portola on November 4, 1769. A big centennial celebration is planned for next year.

Five pupils and two teachers from one school attended the board session "to see the way a school board operates," as a red-headed young spokesman said.

Chairman Clark observed "that it felt good to have these young visitors with us. I wonder if they realized that they saw us spend almost half a million dollars?"

Final action of the board was to receive a brief on statewide school financing by Trustee Ruth M. Boudinot, based on her studies of the State Department of Education and the Senate Fact Finding Committee Reports.

TV STOLEN

A portable television was stolen from the living room of a San Bruno apartment while the owner slept in the next room, poilce reported.

A general motors science lecturer Charles Mann explains to three Terra Nova High School students in Pacifica how a miniature pulse jet engine operates. Students (left to right), Vickie Crandall, Donna Johnson and Joan Hilton were among those who saw the G-M science show, "Previous of Progress" at an assembly.

Skyline School Bid Opening Due Thursday

Bids for the construction of the Skyline School will be opened during the regular meeting of the South San Francisco Unified School District Board of Trustees' meeting October 20.

The school is scheduled to open in September 1967 and will be located in the Serramonte area of Daly City.

COINS TAKEN

The Niantic Street home of Betty J. Carnell was broken into yesterday and 25 silver dollars, some rare coins and two rolls of pennies were stolen, Daly City police report.

Blueburgers Add Exciting Variety That'll Please the Gourmet and the Famished

For most people, a few foods are more welcome than plump, juicy hamburgers. A new and delicious approach to the All-American food — Bluebergers—combines pungent blue cheese and lean ground beef.

There are as many ways to prepare Blueburgers as there are facets to your imagination. The most simple and basic way to fix these delicious burgers is to crumble zesty American blue cheese on top of almost done hamburgers. The burgers may be fried, broiled or grilled over charcoal.

For your selection, here are several "gourmet" versions of blueburgers. Hula Burgers are delectable served at luaus, picnics, backyard barbecues or even in your own kitchen. To prepare these juicy, tangy burgers, allow about one-quarter pound of ground beef per person. Shape the meat into thick patties. Broil, grill, or fry the patties until just about done to taste. Top the hamburger with a slice of fresh or canned pineapple and crumbles of zesty American blue cheese. Continue cooking the burger just until the blue cheese begins to melt and the pineapple is tinged with brown.

Little Girl Blueburgers are wonderful open-face sandwiches to serve the "pajama party" set, after an evening of swimming, or to your bridge group.

LITTLE GIRL BLUEBERGERS
(12 open face sandwiches)

2 pounds ground beef
½ cup grated onion
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
½ teaspoon sugar
½ teaspoon monosodium glutamate
1 teaspoon mustard
½ cup catsup
¾ cup crumbled American blue cheese (about 4 ounces)
6 English muffins
butter

Split muffins and spread with butter.

Mix beef with onion, Worcestershire sauce, sugar, monosodium glutamate, mustard and catsup. Crumble one tablespoon of American blue cheese on each of the muffin halves. Divide meat mixture into 12 parts and put on top of blue cheese. Seal meat to muffins so cheese won't run out.

Place Little Girl Blueburgers on baking sheet and broil about 7 inches from broiler for about 20 minutes, or until done to suit taste.

Hefty Burgers are sure to make a hit with the "ravenous" athletes of the family. You might like to make a double batch of these burgers and freeze them for popping into the broiler when needed.

HEFTY BURGER
(serves 16)

4 pounds lean ground beef
1 cup butter
1 cup crumbled American blue cheese (about 5¼ ounces)
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
16 slices onion

Shape beef into 32 thin patties (or use pre-shaped patties). Mix butter, American blue cheese and Worcestershire sauce together. Place 2 tablespoons cheese mixture on each of 16 patties. Top with onion slice. Place remaining 16 patties on top and seal edges well. Broil or fry to desired degree of doneness. Serve hot on hamburger buns.

Blue Cheese Wineburgers are the epitome of good eating. Who would ever think the common ground beef could turn into such a glamorous dish? Lean ground beef is blended with dry red wine, onion and a bit of garlic, savory butter, and parsley. American blue cheese is the ingredient that adds the wonderful flavor fillip.

Beef Noodle Soup Has Touch

Give home-for-lunchers this hearty Beef Noodle Soup Bowl: In saucepan, brown ½ cup ham strips cut in 1-inch pieces with generous dash crushed dill in 1 tablespoon butter or margarine. Add 1 can (10½ ounces) condensed beef noodle soup, 1 soup can water, and ¼ cup chopped cooked spinach. Heat; stir now and then. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

Butter Angelfood Cake

1 cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
Pinch of salt
1 tablespoon cornstarch
8 large egg whites (1 cup)
1 cup sugar
½ teaspoon vanilla
½ cup butter, melted and cooled

Sift together the flour, baking powder, salt and cornstarch; return to sifter and reserve. In a large mixing bowl, beat the egg whites until foamy; beat in the sugar, 1 tablespoon at a time, and then the vanilla; continue to beat if necessary until meringue holds glossy stiff straight peaks when beater is slowly withdrawn. Gradually sift in the flour mixture, folding in as you do so, so that no flour particles show Fold in the melted butter until no streaks show. Turn into a buttered 3-quart fluted tube pan (9 by 3½ inches); cut through batter with a knife to break air bubbles. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven until cake shrinks from sides of pan and the surface, when lightly touched, shows no dent—about 45 minutes. With a small spatula, loosen outside and tube edges; turn out on a wire rack; cool.

Bumper Crop Of Walnuts

The news from California is good this year. The walnut crop is forecast at 14 per cent above average at 85,000 tons. According to the California Crop Reporting Service, the set is generally heavy and uniform and the walnut sizes large. Most trees have a heavy leaf cover that has protected the maturing walnuts during the recent summer months.

The total U.S. forecast is for 88,000 tons, including California's 85,000 and 3,000 tons from Oregon.

Excellent quality California walnuts are in the stores now. They are found in-the-shell in one and two-pound cellophane bags, or already shelled in four-ounce and eight-ounce vacuum cans, and in clear film bags of five-ounce, ten-ounce, one-pound and two-pound sizes.

TAKE A CAN of condensed tomato soup and a can of tamales to whip up the easiest variation of tamale pie you've ever made. Tomato soup gives the meaty chili sauce tempting ripe tomato flavor and smooth richness—helps extend the meat, too.

Tamale Casserole For Mexican Flair

Have a fiesta at your hacienda soon by treating your family to spicy Chili Tamale Casserole. You'll find the casserole especially convenient to serve after a hectic afternoon when there's little time to prepare supper.

Just brown ground beef and onion with seasonings, then swirl in rosy condensed tomato soup. Tomato soup gives this chili dish sun-ripened tomato goodness and long-simmered flavor. Pour the mixture into a casserole, arrange canned tamales on top, then pop in the oven till bubbling hot.

Condensed tomato soup is one of the most convenient items on your pantry shelf. Heated with an equal amount of water or milk, it's America's Number One Favorite Soup.

And good cooks everywhere are discovering tomato soup is a marvelous cooking ingredient, too—about the easiest way ever to blend bright tomato flavor into casseroles and dozens of other dishes.

To complete your menu, heat buttered French bread and toss a crisp green salad with mild dressing. For dessert, bring out well-chilled "flan"—caramel custard you've baked that morning or made from a pudding mix.

CHILI TAMALE CASSEROLE

1 pound ground beef
½ cup chopped onion
1 large clove garlic, minced
1 tablespoon chili powder
⅛ teaspoon cumin
1 can (10¾ ounces) condensed tomato soup
½ cup sliced ripe olives
1 can (1 pound) prepared tamales

In skillet, brown meat and cook onion, garlic, chili powder, and cumin until onion is tender; stir to separate meat. Add soup and olives. Pour into shallow baking dish (10x6x2 inches). Remove tamales from wrappers; arrange on top. Bake at 350 degrees F. for 30 minutes or until hot. Makes 4 servings.

Herbs Are In With Males, But Use Care

Herbs are definitely "in" with male cooks who have discovered the tang and zest they bring to home-cooked meals. Men, more than women, use herbs in preference to other seasonings according to a nutritionist, and she should know.

"Always use herbs with discretion. If a little bit tastes good, it doesn't necessarily follow that a lot will taste better. Don't over-season and don't use them indiscriminately."

Users of herbs in the beginning should not try to use several at once It's better to start with one herb at a time.

While parsley, chives, tarragon, mint, bay leaves, thyme, basil, and rosemary are some of the most familiar herbs, many more are available to those who like to experiment with new flavors. They should always be stored in a cool place and not exposed to sunlight and dampness, it is advised. If kept too long after the container is opened, they lose their taste and aroma.

Here is an award-winning main dish using herbs:

ROLLED STEAK WITH CHIP STUFFING

1 flank steak (about 1½ lbs.)
1 c. soft finely crumbled white bread
2 c. crumbled potato chips
½ c. melted butter or margarine
1 c. finely chopped celery
3 tbsp. minced parsley
3 tbsp. minced onion
½ tsp. basil
½ tsp. marjoram
1 beef bouillon cube
1 c. hot water
½ c. sliced mushrooms, drained (4-oz. can)

Score one side of steak gently in diamond pattern. Remove excess fat. Mix bread with next seven ingredients. Spread stuffing over unscored side of steak. Pack down firmly. Starting with short end, roll up steak jelly roll fashion. Fasten ends and edges with skewers or sew together. Place in small roasting pan or skillet. Dissolve bouillon cube in water and pour over steak. Bake in 400-degre oven for 20 minutes and then at 375 degrees for one more hour, no more. Test for tenderness with fork. Baste with liquid every 15 minutes. Remove steak to heated plate and keep warm. Brown mushrooms in pan drippings and spread them over steak. Carve in one-inch slices. Salt and pepper to taste. Serve with potato chips.

Turn into buttered muffin cups (½-cup size) filling half full; let rise until doubled—about 20 minutes. Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven until browned—20 minutes. Serve warm. Makes 14.

Cauliflower With Elegance

Elegance keynotes cauliflower given this "souper" treatment: Place 2 packages (10 ounces each) frozen cauliflower, cooked and drained, in shallow baking dish (10x6"x2"). Combine 1 can (10 ounces) frozen condensed cream of shrimp soup and ½ cup milk in saucepan. Heat, stirring occasionally, until soup thaws; pour over cauliflower. Sprinkle with ¼ cup shredded sharp cheese and 1 tablespoon fine dry bread crumbs. Bake at 375-degrees F., 20 to 25 minutes, or until bubbly and brown. Makes 4 servings.

Third Season Is Difference

What's the difference between everyday fare and really good food? Sometimes it's the third season? Of course! There's salt for piquant, and pepper for sparkle — but to complement both, great chefs agree, the third season is sugar. Sugar? Yes indeed, it's this touch of sweet that's needed to bring out the flavor of most any good dish. It can lighten and brighten sauces and soups, make chops and steaks men can't resist, and liven the flavor of vegetables and salads.

In fact, next time you pick up a bottle of your favorite steak sauce, check the list of ingredients. You'll find that sugar is unfailingly among those present. Great "season-makers" know the necessity of sugar to round out and bring out the taste of their pungent saucery!

You see, sugar has a far greater dimension in cooking than just adding flavor—though most good cooks know its power to please when added to slow cooking beans, or used as a glaze on a tender ham. Sugar as a condiment goes much farther than this. It complements sour and counteracts salt, puts the fresh taste back in frozen foods, adds richness without grease . . . and when used as a method of cooking, helps to hold and retain the juices in meat.

For proof of the success of sugar in ways other than sweet, here's a different Western way with steak—a French version of an old-fashioned beef stew — pork chops baked Southern style—plus two salad dressings for people who (till now) never enjoyed this course of the meal—and a strictly modern low calorie way with frozen green beans, lima beans or green peas. You'll find there's a flavor bonus when you add sugar to almost any dish. And there's only 18 calories to the teaspoon.

So next time you taste-test for flavor, or the recipe cautions you to "correct seasoning and serve"—don't just stand there, spoon in hand, wondering what. Reach for the sugar bowl and trust to the third season for some extra goodness, livlier taste, deeper zest.

WESTERN STEAK

Have your butcher cut a two to four-inch thick steak from the large end of a well aged prime lin of corn fed beef. Allow one-half pound per planned serving. Insist that the cut be of uniform thickness (for no reason at all, a butcher will thin it down toward the tail of the steak if not carefully watched.)

Trim off but set aside excess suet. Then rub about one-half cup of powdered sugar into each side of steak—and this really is what makes your steak worth waiting for. Let sugar dissove until the surface of the meat is a sticky glisten, then embed one clove of garlic next to the bone. No other seasoning needed. This will come later.

If you can grill your meat over glowing, well banked charcoal embers that's all to the good, but indoors or out, cooking instructions are exactly the same. Place steak about six inches under or over a very hot fire for about one minute to each (this quick heat draws together and burns the sugar into a thick black crust which holds the juices in the meat.) After both sides are seared, reduce heat to allow the cooking process to be slower than the searing. Turn once, use wooden spoons or spatula to avoid puncturing surface of meat. For rare, allow 10 to 15 minutes, medium 15 to 20 minutes, well done 20 to 25 minutes, but exact time depends on thickness of meat. When done, scrape burnt sugar from surface of steak. Cut into suitable protions. Arrange on platter, pour sauce over and serve.

SAUCE

Render suet in a deep heavy pan. As soon as it begins to run, add one chopped onion, saute onion until almost back then remove from pan. Add two tablespoons red wine and a dash of Tabasco sauce. Blend. Add a generous sprinkling of salt and course ground black pepper and pour over steak.

BEEF STEW

Mix together salt, one tablespoon course black pepper and one tablespoon sugar on a paper towel. Roll one pound of top round, cut in cubes in the misture, coating each side and pressing it well into the meat. Over a medium fire heat two tablespoons of corn oil in a stew pan or large frying pan with a lid. Add the meat all at one time, stir and turn it, so it will brown evenly, and the sugar will not burn. Allow five to seven minutes. The meat should be quite dark and slightly glossy to seal in the juices and add a unique flavor. Now add one and one-half cups red wine and continue to stir a moment longer until any brown particles have dissolved from the sides and bottom of the pan. Turn the fire very low and add the four tomatoes cut in cubes. Cover and cook for about two hours. If necessary, add a little more wine, only enough to nearly cover the meat. Now add six small white (peeled) onions. Continue to cook ten minutes. Next add six small carrots (scraped), cook a final 15 minutes. Taste-test for flavor. Add additional salt and pepper, if desired, and there you are—a very elegant French stew in 30 minutes working time.

Southern Baked Pork Chops

Have a six-rib pork roast cut into six chops. Blend one half cups sugar with one teaspoon salt, one half teaspoon pepper, one fourth teaspoon cinnamon and one fourth teaspoon nutmeg. Coat each chop on both sides with this mixture. Reconstruct the roast fat side up in a long deep loaf pan, inserting half-inch slice of tart, firm, winesap apple, and one half-inch slice of sweet Bermuda or Italian purple onion, between chop, plus one slice of apple at each end of the pan. Cover pan with aluminum foil (allowing ample room at the top so foil will not touch chops) seal edge so no steam can escape and bake in a 350 degree oven one and one-half hours. Tearing open foil, last 15 minutes of baking, to brown.

A Barbecue For Indian Summer

The days of India Summer give us that one last chance to eat outdoors. Savor it with tasty Barbecued Beef Cubes, a plate of crisp relishes and hefty mugs of freshly brewed coffee.

This hearty beef dish can be prepared indoors and carried out to the picnic site for the final cooking. Then, with a lift of a coffee mug, farewell delicious summer barbecue!

Barbecued Beef Cubes

3 strips bacon, cubed
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 garlic clove, crushed
3 medium onions, sliced very thin
3 pounds sirloin of beef, cut ½-inch thick
1 teaspoon curry powder
1 can (10¾ oz.) beef gravy
½ cup strong coffee beverage
1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce
Few drops Tabasco
1 tabelspoon Worcestershire sauce

Cook bacon until crisp. Remove bacon from pan. Add butter or margarine to bacon drippings in pan. Add garlic and onions. Cook until onions are light golden brown. Remove onions from pan. Set aside. Cut beef in ½-inch cubes. Brown on all sides. Return bacon and onions to pan. Sprinkle curry powder over beef cubes. Combine gravy, coffee, tomato sauce, Tabasco and Worcestershire sauce. Pour into pan. Simmer gently 30 minutes. Serve on split, toasted hamburger rolls. Makes eight generous servings.

Date-Stuffed Apples for Fall

When fall's colorful fruits and vegetables come to market, some of our favorite all-American foods come to our tables . . . pumpkin pie, cranberries, squash and baked apples.

Here is an idea for giving a new and tantalizing treatment to juicy baked apples. Stuff the apples with a mixture of imported dates, nuts and candied ginger, and bake the apples with a spicy syrup.

Serve them warm with cream poured over the top. Mmmmm . . . . what a delicious meal finale anytime during fall or winter.

One important cookery point to remember: Just as there are certain kinds of apples that are best for cooking, so are there certain dates you should select for cooking. The importers of dates tell us that imported dates are more richly flavored than domestic dates, and therefore, imported dates, retain the date flavor far better under the heat of cooking. Imported dates retain their form and texture best, also.

Date Stuffed Baked Apples

6 large baking apples
1 cup chopped imported pitted dates
½ cup coarsley chopped nuts
1-3 cup chopped candied ginger
1 cup light corn syrup
1 teaspoon powdered ginger
Few drops of red food coloring

Core apples almost through and peel skin from around tops. Place in greased baking dish. Combine dates, nuts and candied ginger. Fill centers of apples with this mixture. Combine corn syrup, powdered ginger and red food coloring; simmer 5 minutes. Brush apples thickly with this mixture. Add just enough water to cover bottom of baking dish. Bake in a 350 degree oven about 45 to 60 minutes, or until tender, basting frequently with syrup. 6 servings.

Versatile Bartletts

Sliced pears grace a warm buttery coffee cake or ice cream sundae with equal ease. Accompany meats, salads and snacks with fresh mountain Bartlett pears. You'll enjoy the refreshing taste of summer harvest in each beautiful pear.

This Is the Season of the Year to Go on a Bread-Baking Spree for Family

This is the season of the year to go on a bread baking spree for your family.

Test kitchens have just developed three new recipes for tantalizing winter breads that will delight the entire family and your friends as well.

Nothing beats the aroma and taste of freshly baked breads greeting your family as they come in from a session of outdoor activities. Watch Dad and the kids make a beeline for your kitchen to sample your freshly baked treats along with a cup or a glass of their favorite beverage.

Home economists of the test kitchens have developed these recipes especially for the food mixer, as the perfect answer to a mid-winter treat delight that will have your family raving about your skills and asking for more.

Bring your family and guests indoors from their wintertime activities with the aroma of freshly baked breads coming from Mom's kitchen. You'll be glad you did, and they'll love you for it.

- 1¼ cups milk, scalded
- ½ cup butter or margarine
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1-3 cup sugar
- 2 packages active dry yeast
- ½ cup warm water (not hot 110-115 degrees F.)
- 2 eggs

Combine milk, butter or margarine, salt and sugar in mixer bowl; cook to lukewarm. Soften yeast in warm water. Add yeast mixture, eggs and 3 cups of flour to bowl. Attach bowl and dough hook. Beat at speed "2" 1 minute, increase speed to "4" and beat 3 minutes. Stop motor, add remaining flour. Beat at speed "4" 2 minutes. Shape into a ball on a lightly floured board. Place in buttered bowl; cover dough and set in warm draftless area to double in size. Turn dough onto lightly floured board; cut into 3 equal portions. Make one into Pecan Raisin Whirls, another into Kolache and a third into Apricot Lace Coffee Cake. Bake as directed below.

PECAN RAISIN WHIRLS

- 1-3 cup melted butter or margarine
- ¾ cup brown sugar
- 2 tablespoons corn or pancake syrup
- 36 pecan halves
- ½ cup chopped pecans
- 1 cup seedless raisins
- 1-3 recipe Sweet Roll Dough (See recipe above)

Combine 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1-3 cup brown sugar and syrup; mix. Arrange 3 pecan halves each in 12 well-buttered muffin cups. Roll dough into a 12-inch square on a lightly floured board. Spread dough with remaining butter and sugar, sprinkle with chopped nuts and raisins. Roll jelly-roll fashion and cut into 12 1-inch slices. Arrange slices, cut side up, in muffin cups. Cover and allow to double in size. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until done, about 20 minutes. Turn pan upside down onto tray immediately after removing from oven; allow pan to stay on rolls 1 minute to let butterscotch run onto rolls. Yield: 1 dozen rolls.

KOLACHE

- 1-3 recipe Sweet Dough (see recipe above)
- 6 tablespoons thick raspberry jam, orange marmalade, apricot or peach preserves
- 3 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
- Confectioner's sugar

Divide dough in 12 equal portions. Shape each into a smooth ball; place 2 inches apart on a greased baking sheet. Using 2 fingers make a deep depression in center of each roll. Fill hole with about ½ tablespoon of desired fruit filling. Cover and let stand in warm draftless area until doubled in size. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until done, 18 to 20 minutes. Brush with butter and sprinkle with confectioner's sugar. Yield: 12 rolls.

Apricot Lace Coffee Cake

- 1 cup dried apricots, quartered
- ½ cup water
- ½ cup pineapple preserves
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1-3 recipe Sweet Dough (see recipe above)
- milk
- 3 tablespoons coarse or granulated sugar, optional

Cook apricots in water in covered saucepan 5 minutes. Let stand covered until cool. Mash. Stir in pineapple preserve and 2 tablespoons sugar; cook slowly until thickened. Cool. Roll dough into a rectangle 15x8 inches on a lightly floured board; place on greased baking sheet. Spread filling in a strip 3 inches wide down center of dough. On each side of filling make cuts 1 inch apart and 2 inches in from outside edges of rectangle. Starting at one end fold strips of dough from each side across filling alternating from side to side. Tuck ends of last strips under dough. Cover and let double in size in warm draftless area. Brush dough with milk and sprinkle with coarse sugar. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until done, about 30 minutes. Remove from pan and cool on wire rack. Yield: one 15-inch coffee cake, about 12 servings.

Pears Ripen Well Off Tree

Pears are one of the few fruits that are delicious when not tree riped. A smoother texture is assured when they are picked green and permitted to ripen off the tree. Great care is taken by the pear growers to allow Bartlett pears to reach optimum maturity in size; then they are carefully picked, washed, sorted, wrapped and packed for shipping to local markets. As Bartletts ripen, the green skin turns to a golden yellow and the pears develop into a sweet juicy fruit, a universal favorite. If not ripe when purchased, simply store Bartletts a few days at room temperature and they will ripen and turn to a golden yellow.

New Deacon To Speak At S.S.F. Church

Bill Webb, 615 Cypress Avenue, South San Francisco, was recently ordained as a deacon of the First Southern Baptist Church, 800 Grand Avenue.

Those participating in the service included Jim Riley, George Morales, George Liveasy and Fred Forrester, all deacons. Mrs. Fred Forrester made a presentation to Mrs. Webb.

A challenge to the church was delivered by the Rev. Don Venosdel, associational missionary for the San Francisco Peninsula Southern Baptist Association. A challenge to the new deacon was delivered by the Rev. Kenneth Glenn, pastor of First Southern Baptist Church.

Music for the service was provided by the Rev. Ron Willis, assistant pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church in South San Francisco; Mrs. Lenore Rigler, and the Rev. Darly Randall, minister of music and education.

A reception honoring the new deacon, his wife, Shirley, and daughters, Bonnie and Gretchen, and son, Bill, was held following the ordination.

S-DA Plans Program On Cancer

Forty-three thousand Americans will die this year from lung cancer, and members of the Pacifica Seventh-Day Adventist Church, now meeting at St. Edmund's Episcopal Church, plan to participate in a program aimed at reducing that number.

October 22 they will contribute their share toward a $150,000 Temperance Day offering to be received in Seventh-Day Adventist Church, will be used to sponsor such health education programs as the famous five-day plan to stop smoking, which Adventist physicians and ministers were conducting five years before the surgeon general's report on the relationships of smoking and various diseases.

Pastor Marshall explains that through such programs Adventists believe millions of persons may be saved from untimely death, including many of the estimated 100,000 who will die this year from smoking-related heart attacks.

In a special 10-year study the National Cancer Institute found that among 250,000 veterans, 11 times as many cigarette smokers died of lung cancer as non-smokers, and 12 times as many smokers died of emphysema.

Officer Uses Head And Legs in Arrest

Officer Stephen Steen used his head—and his legs—when he spotted three teen-agers huddled around a stalled car reported stolen in Daly City last week.

The youths apparently were attempting to restart the car as Officer Steen pulled up in his squad car.

When the trio saw the officer they started to run down south Hill Boulevard, according to Steen.

The officer radioed for help and then gave chase on foot.

Over fences, through backyards, and across lawns, Steen chased the boys until more than a mile later they literally dropped in their tracks.

His fellow officers were astounded to find Steen and three youths leaning against the squad car as they came screaming to his assistance.

Steen claims he used his head and "ran them into the ground."

"Looks more like he used his legs," another officer remarked." Frankly, I intend to nominate him for the Olympic cross-country run."

Terra Nova Topics

By MARIA MONTENEGRO

The yearly fund-raising furor is on at Terra Nova as various classes and clubs peddle their wares around campus and community.

F.B.L.A. has captured the sweet-tooth market since school began selling the World's Finest Chocolate. To those whose money supplies are gradually dwindling under repeated purchases, at least life is a sweet sorrow.

☆

Meanwhile, the TN junior class sells school pennants. Their light bulb sales campaign has just been launched around the community and promises to be successful.

Last Thursday, GAA sponsored a "Swim-all" after school at the TN pool. It was good exercise for participants and the club treasury.

Friday, Terra Novans will go "8 Miles High," the first dance of the year for which Girl's League holds high hopes. Sounding out will be the Pseudos.

☆

Dramatic aspirants flocked to the drama classroom last Thursday, Friday, and Monday when TN drama coach David Cambell held readings for this year's school play to be performed in December. He will direct "The Crucible," Arthur Miller's controversial play dealing with the Salem witch trials.

☆

TN's AFS and Language clubs will join at Golden Gate Park this Sunday for a day of biking and picknicking.

☆

Congratulations and good luck to TN senior Norma MacArthur who has been named a semi-finalist in the National Merit Scholarship Competition. This qualifies her to be tested for the finals. If she becomes a finalist she will be in competition for scholarships. Norma, whose main interest is the theatre, plans to major in drama at S.F. state.

Executive Session Is 'Off'

An executive session scheduled to follow Monday night's regular meeting of the Jeffeson Elementary School District Board of Trustees was called off for lack of a quorum.

Only three members of the board were present at the meeting—an absolute minimum necessary to establish a quorum on the five member board.

Trustees Joseph Lewkowitz and Thomas Noonan were absent.

As chairman George Perry asked for a recess in order to hold an executive session, purportedly to discuss site acquisition in which litigation might be involved, trustee Peter Galiano opposed the move and declined to attend the session.

Several persons in the audience interrupted discussion on the subject and demandde to know what the board was going to discuss in the execuitve session.

Supterintendent Frank Greenwood denounced the interruptions and said, "I think it's a shame when a handful of people in the audience can prevent school officials from doing the job they were elected to do."

The verbal reprimand was apparently aimed at both board members and those in the audience.

The meeting was adjourned without further action.

Nazarenes Set Visitation Day

The Church of the Nazarene in Broadmoor has announced October 23, the pastor and people, will be visiting the Broadmoor Community in a door-to-door census.

They will be extending an invitation to all to attend Rally Day Sevices, October 30. The Visitation Day services include Sunday school and worship, a potluck dinner in the annex, and then the visitation.

The arrangements for the day are to be supervised by Joseph Norton, 627 MacArthur Drive, Daly City, and the dinner is under the supervision of Mary Edwards, 723 Hill Avenue, South San Francisco. The keynote sermon, "To God Be the Glory," will be given by the pastor, Rev. Ronald K. Grabke.

4 Westmoor High Seniors Teach in North County

Four Westmoor High School seniors are participating in a program known as "cadet teaching."

Instead of going off to classes this semseter, Kathy Brown, Bob Medina, Marie Sooklaris and Sue Walsh, walk to nearby grammar schools where they assist in teaching.

The program is designed for students who are interested in teaching as a career.

The "cadet" performs such tasks as taking a group of students to the yard for organized play, or teaching a lesson while the regular teacher is with another group.

Kathy is presently teaching kindergarten at M. Pauline Brown, Bob, the sixth grade, also at M. Pauline Brown.

Sue signed up last year and is cadet teaching the fourth grade at Vista Mar.

The cadet teachers have made some comments about their new "jobs."

Since this is the first time they have been taken out of the role of the student and put into the role of the teacher ,they find it a unique experience.

Cadet teachers' adviser, Mrs. Anne Maionchi, said, "Westmoor's cadet teaching program is being recognized by elementary schools in this district as very successful."

Interested seniors who can drop one class, and have at least a C-plus are eligible for this program.

What are you waiting for?

If you want a Volkswagen, you want America's most popular imported car.

But maybe you've wondered why they don't make more of them, if it's such a good car.

Maybe you think the Volkswagen people do not truly understand mass production, what with their three-thousand-plus inspectors and inflexible ideas about craftsmanship. Maybe there will never be enough Volkswagens to go around.

Well, maybe you're in for a pleasant surprise.

Because while we have more customers than ever, we also have more cars than ever. More every month. More every year. More right now.

So—right now—why not make it a point to come see us?

You can size up, peer into, try on, talk over and test drive a VW.

Or you can even buy one.
